Enduring Understandings

Understanding the eight stages of genocide. (classification, symbolization, dehumanization, organization, polarization, preparation, extermination, and denial.)

How the past has shaped present day conditions and policies.

The role of bystander, upstanders, victims, and perpetrators in genocide.

How individuals can prevent the spread of racism and discrimination.

- Students will determine, through media literacy skills and lateral, close reading strategies when evaluating primary and secondary resources the following: 1. context of the text; 2. reason for the text; 3. type of source the text is; 4. the point of view of the author of the text 5. the intended audience for the text 6. evaluate the stance of the text
- Students will use Historical Thinking Skills to evaluate sources and ideas. Comparison, Contextualization, Continuity and Change over Time, Periodization, Synthesis, Claims, Point of View, Intended Audience, and Purpose.
- Students will observe, note, and draw conclusions with the understanding that there are multiple perspectives. Multiple perspectives is the foundation to understanding the why and how of history. Documents, primary sources, historical readings will be evaluated.

Essential Questions

Was the Holocaust inevitable? Did the years of historical antisemitism make an event like the Holocaust unavoidable?

Is it human nature to hate?

Is Democracy fragile?

Why do you think the world was so reluctant to accept Jewish refugees?

Why are people susceptible to "Mob Mentality?" To what extent did Nazi propaganda reinforce this?

The United States also had instances of forced sterilization as well as laws restricting minority groups that lasted well past the duration of Nazi Germany. How are these instances different from Nazi Germany? How come they continued years after the Holocaust?

Knowledge and Skills

In order to clearly understand the events surrounding the Holocaust (1933-1945) three specific areas of study must first be completed.

Identify the early history of the Jewish people and the rise of Antisemitism.

- Hindenburg death
- Consolidation of power...Der Fuhrer, Formation of the SS, establishing concentration camps, Dachau, Night of the Long Knives
- Oath to Hitler

Transfer Goals

Students will be able to independently use their learning to critically evaluate the historical process of dehumanization which each targeted group in genocide experiences.

Students will be able to independently participate actively and effectively as an informed citizen of a democracy. Nazi Germany was an established democracy but through political manipulation and popular vote, the Nazi's were able to effectively transform the Weimer Republic into a dictatorship.
