Essential Questions

How did Cold War conflicts fuel genocide and slow the process of international justice?

What should determine whether or not the United States joins the ICC?

How successful has the post-genocide quest for justice been in Cambodia?

To what extent has the United States done enough in combating genocide?

Child Soldiers, modern slavery, regional conflicts (for example Syria) and the sex trade are all human rights violations that continue to plague the world. Why are these problems not covered by mainstream media and what can the international community realistically do to stop these problems?
