Enduring Understandings

Understanding the eight stages of genocide. (classification, symbolization, dehumanization, organization, polarization, preparation, extermination, and denial.)

How the past has shaped present day conditions and policies.

The role of bystander, upstanders, victims, and perpetrators in genocide.

How individuals can prevent the spread of racism and discrimination.

Concepts of memory, justice, and forgiveness.

The role of cognitive dissonance.

Determine how a genocide can even occur.

- Students will determine, through media literacy skills and lateral, close reading strategies when evaluating primary and secondary resources the following: 1. context of the text; 2. reason for the text; 3. type of source the text is; 4. the point of view of the author of the text 5. the intended audience for the text 6. evaluate the stance of the text
- Students will use Historical Thinking Skills to evaluate sources and ideas. Comparison, Contextualization, Continuity and Change over Time, Periodization, Synthesis, Claims, Point of View, Intended Audience, and Purpose.
- Students will observe, note, and draw conclusions with the understanding that there are multiple perspectives. Multiple perspectives is the foundation to understanding the why and how of history. Documents, primary sources, historical readings will be evaluated.

Essential Questions

What makes someone an upstander? What qualities do you think they all shared?

Why is it a common misconception that the Jews did not resist? Explain the many different forms of resistance that Jews displayed during the Holocaust?

Would you label the Nuremberg Trials as a significant moment for international law or an insignificant justice for the millions who died? Some allied countries advocated for summary executions, why would this have been a failure?

Evaluate the motive and strategies of genocide denial. Why are they effective?

To what extent does trying to combat genocide denial conflict with American democratic principles of free speech?

To what extent is Genocide denial is the final crime in genocide?
