Standards

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| LA.9-12.W | Writing |
| LA.9-12.RL | Reading: Literature |
| LA.9-12.SL | Speaking and Listening |
| VPA.9-12.1.1.12.2 | Characters have physical, emotional, and social dimensions that can be communicated through the application of acting techniques. |
| VPA.9-12.1.1.12.C.2 | Formulate a process of script analysis to identify how the physical, emotional, and social dimensions of a character are communicated through the application of acting techniques. |
| VPA.9-12.1.3.12.1 | Effective scripted and improvisational performances require informed, supported, and sustained choices by actors, directors, and designers. Theatre genres are created by combining complex narrative structures, technical theatrical elements, and thematic intent. |
| VPA.9-12.1.3.12.2 | Presentation of believable, multidimensional characters in scripted and improvised performances requires application of specific physical choices, sustained vocal technique, and clearly motivated actions. |
| VPA.9-12.1.3.12.C.1 | Create plays that include well-structured plots and subplots, clear thematic intent, original characters, and technical theatrical elements appropriate to a variety of theatrical genres. |
| VPA.9-12.1.3.12.C.2 | Create and evaluate performances by citing evidence of specific physical choices, sustained vocal technique, and clearly motivated actions. |

Enduring Understanding
