LA.9-12.SL.9-10.1	The CCR anchor standards and high school grade-specific standards work in tandem to define college and career readiness expectations—the former providing broad standards, the latter providing additional specificity.
VPA.9-12.1.1.12.1	Theatre and the arts play a significant role in human history and culture.
VPA.9-12.1.1.12.2	Characters have physical, emotional, and social dimensions that can be communicated through the application of acting techniques.
VPA.9-12.1.1.12.C.1	Analyze examples of theatre’s influence on history and history’s influence on theatre in Western and non-Western theatre traditions.
VPA.9-12.1.1.12.C.2	Formulate a process of script analysis to identify how the physical, emotional, and social dimensions of a character are communicated through the application of acting techniques.
VPA.9-12.1.3.12.1	Effective scripted and improvisational performances require informed, supported, and sustained choices by actors, directors, and designers. Theatre genres are created by combining complex narrative structures, technical theatrical elements, and thematic intent.
VPA.9-12.1.3.12.C.2	Create and evaluate performances by citing evidence of specific physical choices, sustained vocal technique, and clearly motivated actions.
VPA.9-12.1.4.12.B.1	Formulate criteria for arts evaluation using the principles of positive critique and observation of the elements of art and principles of design, and use the criteria to evaluate works of dance, music, theatre, visual, and multimedia artwork from diverse cultural contexts and historical eras.

Enduring Understanding

- 1 The foundations of theatre.
- 2 Appreciate theatre as a performance art rather than just a literary form. Recognize that theatre does not exist without a playwright, actor, and audience
- 3 Recognize the social functions of theatre.
- 4 The evolution of drama from a religious ritual to entertainment phenomenon.
- 5 Developing and writing plays.

Essential Questions

- 1 Identify types of theatre and its many forms?
- 2 Recognize that theatre is different from other art forms?
- 3 Understand the purpose of theatre and how it serves society?
- 4 Understand that acting and theatre are collaborative arts.

Knowledge and Skills

Students will be able to:

- Demonstrate how relaxation and physical exercises will help when developing and working in an activity, presentation or performance.
- Understand a character in a play and describe the character in a biography.
- Define the nine stage areas and perform them in a Fairy Tale piece.
- Understand Greek and Roman Theatre, types of stages and development of theatre in the West.
