

Unit 1 - Winter Concert Prep and Fundamentals of Performing

Content Area: Unified Arts
Course(s): Music 5
Time Period: September
Length: 15 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Summary

In this unit, band and strings students will have their first exposure to large ensemble performance. They will be able to play arrangements for their ensembles that are a full page in length, and follow cues and beat patterns from a conductor for beginner level works. Students will also expand their knowledge of time signatures and the corresponding beat patterns, basic dynamics, simple 8th note patterns, as well as reinforcement of 4th grade concepts and rhythms, such as whole, half, and quarter notes/rests. Band students will also expand their range on their instruments to at least one full octave, and string students will develop their skills and knowledge of notes on the G string.

Essential Questions

- What role does my instrument play within an ensemble?
- How does creating and performing music differ from listening to music?
- What is the role of music in my life?
- How does my individual participation benefit the whole ensemble?

- How does playing an instrument allow me to express myself?
- How does my individual behavior as a performer and/or an audience member effect the musical performance?

Enduring Understandings

Students will understand that:

- playing an instrument is a way to express one's self.
- playing an instrument enables one to communicate without words.
- music is not music until humans bring it to life.
- participating in an ensemble builds a sense of community.
- playing an instrument fosters responsibility.
- the respectful behavior of an audience shows the appreciation and value of my hard work.

Application

Students will be able to independently use their learning to:

- work to improve sight reading capabilities.
- play with increased facility on music with a variety of rhythms, tonality, and tempo, using fundamental knowledge.
- show increased melodic awareness, with improvements in phrasing, dynamics, and articulation.
- perform on their instrument independently, and in an ensemble setting.
- learn to follow a conductor, and understand the role of their instrument in a large ensemble.
- Improvise and/or compose original musical ideas on their instrument
- Listen critically to performances
- Recognize connections between music, other subjects, and aspects of life

Skills

Students will be skilled at:

- performing together in a large ensemble with multiple instruments and parts, Concert Band or String Orchestra, full pieces of age and skill appropriate original music and/or arrangements for these large ensembles.
- following beat patterns indicated by a conductor, as well as interpreting the conductors cues in relation to dynamics, tempo, performance and feel of a piece of music.
- performing individually and in a group, using correct technique, good posture, proper articulation, and with good tone and intonation, a variety of exercises and songs.
- Listening to performances critically, and making adjustments to improve.
- Creating original musical ideas and melodies.
- Respond to and form personal connections with music
