Established Goals/Standards

Please choose the appropriate Goals/Standards from the Standards tab above.

LA.W.K.1	Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose opinion pieces in which they tell a reader the topic or the name of the book they are writing about and state an opinion or preference about the topic or book (e.g., My favorite book is...).
LA.W.K.8	With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.
LA.RF.K.1	Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
LA.RL.K.5	Recognize common types of texts (e.g., storybooks, poems).
LA.RL.K.6	With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
LA.SL.K.1	Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
LA.SL.K.3	Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
LA.SL.K.6	Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

Essential Questions

- What are the best ways to take care of a library book?
- Who are your favorite authors and what kinds of books do you like to read?
- Why are illustrations important to the story in a picture book?
- How do you choose a book which is a 'just right' (appropriate) book for you?

Enduring Understanding

---

The LMC is the place to listen to stories, borrow books and learn about different kinds of literature.

Keep books in a safe place away from young children and pets.

Illustrations help to tell the story and assist in understanding what is read.

Look at the cover and pages to see how many words you can read independently or choose a book to share with someone at home.

Content

Listen to a book for meaning and understanding.

Identify different authors and illustrators.

Be introduced to literature such as fairy tales, nursery rhymes and poetry.

Appreciate storytelling a puppetry.

Develop appreciation of the Library Media Center as a resource for good literature and information.

Respond to literature by rating a book with a reason to support rating.
