Established Goals/Standards

Please choose the appropriate Goals/Standards from the Standards tab above.

LA.W.3.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.
LA.RI.3.1	Ask and answer questions, and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
LA.RI.3.2	Determine the main idea of a text; recount the key details and explain how they support the main idea.
LA.RI.3.3	Describe the relationship between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text, using language that pertains to time, sequence, and cause/effect.
LA.RI.3.8	Describe the logical connection between particular sentences and paragraphs in a text (e.g., comparison, cause/effect, first/second/third in a sequence) to support specific points the author makes in a text.
LA.SL.3.1	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher led) with diverse partners on grade 3 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

Essential Questions

What evaluation techniques are used in the media center?

How do verbal messages differ by genre and author?

How do biographies and autobiographies help me to learn to respect the differing interests, experiences and variety of viewpoints in our world?

Why are the setting and theme important to understanding the story?

How do my likes and dislikes help in my choice of genre for recreational reading?

Why are some books awarded the Newbery Award?

Enduring Understanding

Reading goes beyond decoding and comprehension to interpretation and development of new understandings.

The kind of information presented in each reference source, internet or online, needs to be considered before using this source for a research project.

Authors write to inform, entertain, persuade or explain.
