Unit 2: The Short Story

Belleville Board of Education

102 Passaic Avenue

Belleville, NJ 07109

Prepared by: Ms. Toni Ann Ferraiolo

Dr. Richard Tomko, Ph.D., M.J., Superintendent of Schools

Ms. LucyAnn Demikoff, Director of Curriculum and Instruction K-12

Ms. Nicole Shanklin, Director of Elementary Education

Mr. George Droste, Director of Secondary Education

Board Approved: September 23, 2019

Unit Overview

Unit 2 explores the short story. Through this unit, students will learn story-tellers seek to entertain as well as instruct via the narrative. They will apply the elements of fictional writing to various genres. Reading exemplar stories is critical to the success of creating original stories. Students should read short stories of their choosing to analyze the elements of fiction. Teachers should also incorporate read alouds of exemplars. To help writers write fluently, instruction on combining sentences using conjunctions, commas, and semi-colons is included in this unit. Students will apply lessons learned from Unit 1 to enhance their writing. Students will engage in all phases of the writing process. At the end of unit 2, one completed story will be chosen, polished, and added to the portfolio. As an extension, author studies are valuable.

By the end of the Unit 2, students should expect to learn:

- How to develop ideas for writing short stories
- The elements of fictional writing
- Experiment with a variety of narrative structures such as flashbacks, suspense, and sequence of events
- How to accept and give constructive criticism during peer review
- Use of simple, compound, and complex sentences gives writing fluency
- To share original narratives through presentations, readings, and publications

Enduring Understanding

- Writing expands understanding of the world, its people, and oneself.
- Writing is a reflective process.
- Writing is a multi-stage process.
- Writing benefits from collaboration and feedback.
- Writers compose original works with different purposes in mind.
- Writers use 7 elements of fiction to compose effective short stories.

- Writers explore the depth of human conflicts, motivations, and behaviors.
- Writers use conventions of standard English grammar and usage to promote fluency.
- The story-teller seeks to entertain and instruct its readers. Stories often communicate an author's morals, culture, and personal experiences
- Stories often communicate an author's morals, culture, and personal experiences

Essential Questions

- What is the benefit of writing fiction?
- How do writers develop a character with layers?
- What tools do writer's use to achieve their purpose?
- How do writers learn from models of good writing?
- How do we judge the quality of fiction?
- How can we use creative writing to better understand our world?
- How can we use our knowledge of genre, character, structure, setting, plot, conflict, etc. to reach our readers?
- How do we use the writing process and peer feedback to revise our writing?

Exit Skills

- The skills students should obtain by the end of this unit are:
- How to write an original story
- How to create characters readers care about
- How to develop a plot
- How to use literary devices to bring stories to life and add meaning
- How to use flashback and build suspense
- How to write a story with a strong message
- How to write compound and complex sentences
- How to use sentence variety to maintain fluency
- How to critique fiction
- How to edit and revise writing based on peer reviews

New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSL-S)

LA.W.8.3

Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.

LA.W.8.3.A

Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and point of view and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically.

LA.W.8.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, and reflection, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
LA.W.8.3.C	Use a variety of transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence, signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another, and show the relationships among experiences and events.
LA.W.8.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language to capture the action and convey experiences and events.
LA.W.8.3.E	Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on the narrated experiences or events.
LA.W.8.7	Conduct short research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question), drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions that allow for multiple avenues of exploration.
LA.W.8.8	Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.
LA.RL.8.1	Cite the textual evidence and make relevant connections that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
LA.RL.8.2	Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to the characters, setting, and plot; provide an objective summary of the text.
LA.RL.8.3	Analyze how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or provoke a decision.
LA.RL.8.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.
LA.RL.8.5	Compare and contrast the structure of two or more texts and analyze how the differing structure of each text contributes to its meaning and style.
LA.RL.8.6	Analyze how differences in the points of view of the characters and the audience or reader (e.g., created through the use of dramatic irony) create such effects as suspense or humor.
LA.RL.8.7	Evaluate the choices made by the directors or actors by analyzing the extent to which a filmed or live production of a story or drama stays faithful to or departs from the text or script.
LA.RL.8.8	(Not applicable to literature)
LA.RL.8.10	By the end of the year read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems at grade level text-complexity or above, scaffolding as needed.
LA.SL.8.1	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 8 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

Interdisciplinary Connections

Interdisciplinary Connections

LA.8.HD.i2	Use feedback from adults and peers to clarify writing.
LA.8.WI.I2	Maintain a consistent style and voice throughout writing (e.g., third person for formal style, accurate and efficient word choice, sentence fluency, and voice should be active versus passive).
LA.8.WI.o1	Produce a clear and coherent permanent product that is appropriate to the specific task (e.g., topic), purpose (e.g., to inform), and audience (e.g., reader).
LA.8.WI.o2	With guidance and support from peers and adults, strengthen writing by revising and editing.
LA.M.HD.i	sustaining effort to complete complex reading or writing tasks; seeking out assistance, models, sources, or feedback to improve understanding or final products
LA.M.WI.m	selecting relevant facts, details, examples, quotations, or text features to support/clarify the focus/controlling idea

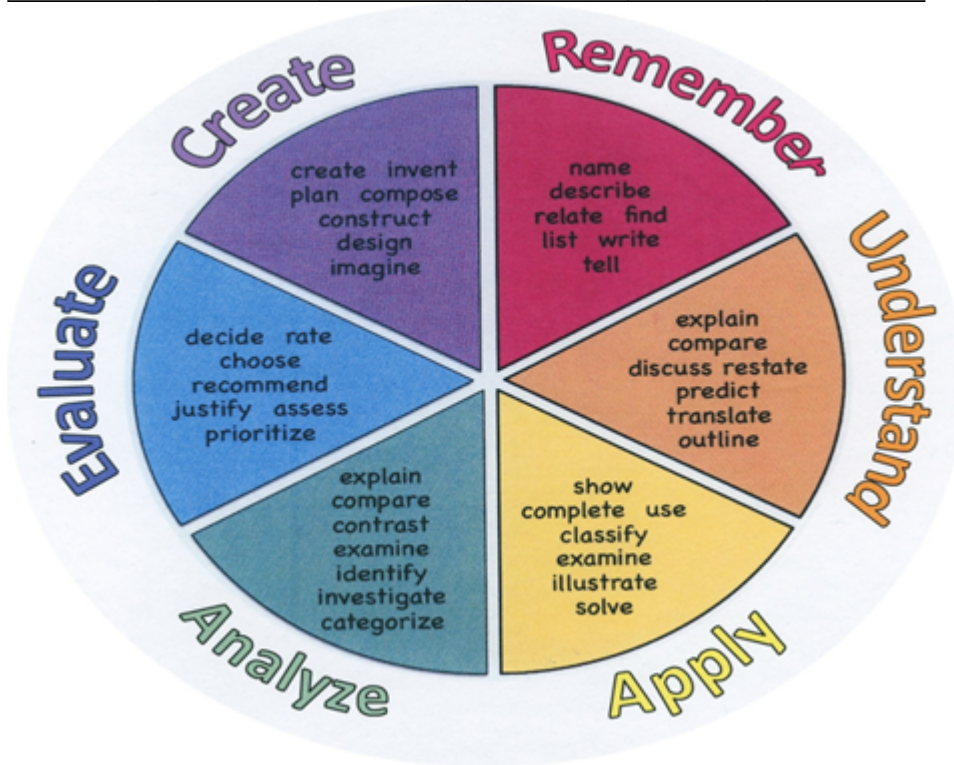

Learning Objectives

- Generate ideas for writing using a variety of techniques such as free writing, writing from prompts, journal entries, imitations, direct observations, dreams, memories, etc.
- Compose original drafts.
- Gain a deeper awareness of the contemporary genres of fiction
- Create original short stories by applying the elements of fiction: character, point of view, setting, plot, conflict, tone, & theme
- Create unity of effect by applying literary devices such as irony, symbolism, allusion, and figurative language.
- Experiment with a variety of narrative structures such as flashback, suspense, and sequence of events.
- Create well-developed, meaningful characters by using effective dialogue, description, point of view, and conflict.
- Revise to develop meaning using techniques such as changing tense, reconsidering point of view, altering structure, evaluating word choice, intensifying conflict, reading aloud, considering constructive feedback from peers, etc.
- Edit and proofread to enhance fluency by omitting needless words, varying sentence structure, describing specific details, using vivid verbs, editing prepositional phrases, checking spelling, applying conventions of standard English grammar and usage.
- Share final product through presentations, oral readings, writers' workshops, publications, portfolios, etc

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

Some Possible genres (or focus of this unit if teacher so chooses) for writing original fiction:

- A sample project for this unit: Have the class collectively write a short story or novel; each student responsible for writing a chapter and editing other chapters to continue to develop their imagery skills from Unit 1 and narrative/short story skills
- Fan Fiction- FanFic is any work which embellishes, alters or rewrites the work of another (usually a published author) with new story lines, characters, alternative endings, beginnings and substitute sets of morals, ideals

- Created fictional characters for their short story based on fan fiction
- YA Fantasy- taking classic stories, like Beauty and the Beast, and retelling it to fit modern times.
- Flash Fiction <http://www.thereviewreview.net/publishing-tips/flash-fiction-whats-it-all-about>
- Urban Fiction - (Tread lightly with this one in terms of appropriateness. Excerpts from Walter Dean Myers would be an author to read). Used for works set in urban America dealing with drugs and violence and hardships of life involving African American or Latino characters. The genre is also known as Street Fiction, Gangsta Lit, Ghetto Lit, or Hip-Hop Fictio
- Graphic Novel
- Mystery
- Thriller
- Fantasy
- Science Fiction
- Comic strip
- Drama
- Discussion of mood and tone

Script for a movie (turn a created story into film or play with stage directions)*Monster is an excellent source to use as a touchstone

TED-talks are a powerful way to deliver a story. This is also an option.

Assessment Evidence - Checking for Understanding (CFU)

By identifying the Evidence of Student Learning with Checking for Understanding (CFU) techniques used during the lesson and/or for Closure (Madeline Hunter), please list the variety of means used to assess students' learning (e.g. quizzes, tests, academic prompts, observations, homework, journals).

- Exit ticket example - List one thing you learned today and one thing you want the teacher to review tomorrow (formative assessment)
 - KWL chart used for introduction to short story to continue to develop narrative elements (formative assessment)
 - Create a "BMS Talk" that models the Ted Talk format about an original composition (alternative assessment)
 - Create an original written piece to publish and share with the class (summative assessment)

Ancillary Resources

- Scholastic Scope
- NEWSELA
- Common Lit
- Novels that are in district

Technology Infusion

A specific example of technology infusion would be using Google Classroom to write a narrative essay for the short stories that students found. Students can also be responsible for their own prompt. Another example occurs when students are researching various short stories on the Internet for inspiration.

- Each student has a Chrome book and access to Google services
- Microsoft Word
- Google Docs
- Edmodo
- blogs
- discussion boards
- Power Point
- Ted Talks
- podcasts
- Prezi
- New York Times often run writing contests for teens
- Smithsonian Tween Tribune

Alignment to 21st Century Skills & Technology

Upon completion of this section, please remove all remaining descriptions, notes, outlines, examples and/or illustrations that are not needed or used.

Mastery and infusion of 21st Century Skills & Technology and their Alignment to the core content areas is essential to student learning. The core content areas include:

- English Language Arts;
- Mathematics;
- Science and Scientific Inquiry (Next Generation);
- Social Studies, including American History, World History, Geography, Government and Civics, and Economics;
- World languages;
- Technology;
- Visual and Performing Arts.

21st Century Skills/Interdisciplinary Themes

Upon completion of this section, please remove all remaining descriptions, notes, outlines, examples and/or illustrations that are not needed or used.

Please list only the 21st Century/Interdisciplinary Themes that will be incorporated into this unit.

- Communication and Collaboration
- Creativity and Innovation
- Critical thinking and Problem Solving
- ICT (Information, Communications and Technology) Literacy
- Information Literacy
- Life and Career Skills
- Media Literacy

21st Century Skills

Upon completion of this section, please remove all remaining descriptions, notes, outlines, examples and/or illustrations that are not needed or used.

Please list only the 21st Century Skills that will be incorporated into this unit.

- Civic Literacy
- Environmental Literacy
- Financial, Economic, Business and Entrepreneurial Literacy
- Global Awareness
- Health Literacy

Differentiation

Please remember: Effective educational Differentiation in a lesson lies within content, process, and/or product.

Please identify the ones that will be employed in this unit.

Differentiations:

- Small group instruction
- Small group assignments
- Extra time to complete assignments

- Pairing oral instruction with visuals
- Repeat directions - Another example is posting the assignment, directions broken down and steps for how to complete the assignment on Google Classroom
- Use manipulatives
- Center-based instruction
- Token economy
- Study guides
- Teacher reads assessments allowed
- Scheduled breaks
- Rephrase written directions
- Multisensory approaches
- Additional time
- Preview vocabulary
- Preview content & concepts
- Story guides
- Behavior management plan
- Highlight text - A specific example would allowing students to peer-edit a classmates's writing product (whether that be one or multiple paragraphs) monitoring various aspects of the writing process
- Student(s) work with assigned partner
- Visual presentation
- Assistive technology
- Auditory presentations
- Large print edition
- Dictation to scribe
- Small group setting

Hi-Prep Differentiations:

- Alternative formative and summative assessments
- Choice boards
- Games and tournaments
- Group investigations
- Guided Reading
- Independent research and projects
- Interest groups
- Learning contracts
- Leveled rubrics
- Literature circles
- Multiple intelligence options
- Multiple texts
- Personal agendas
- Project-based learning
- Problem-based learning
- Stations/centers
- Think-Tac-Toes
- Tiered activities/assignments
- Tiered products

- Varying organizers for instructions

Lo-Prep Differentiations

- Choice of books or activities
- Cubing activities
- Exploration by interest
- Flexible grouping
- Goal setting with students
- Jigsaw
- Mini workshops to re-teach or extend skills
- Open-ended activities
- Think-Pair-Share
- Reading buddies
- Varied journal prompts
- Varied supplemental materials

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

Please identify the Special Education Learning adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

A specific example would be having student working with an assigned partner in order to define key words as they are used in the narrative examples used to help identify imagery and other aspects of the writing process.

- printed copy of board work/notes provided
- additional time for skill mastery
- assistive technology
- behavior management plan
- Center-Based Instruction
- check work frequently for understanding
- computer or electronic device utilizes
- extended time on tests/ quizzes
- have student repeat directions to check for understanding
- highlighted text visual presentation
- modified assignment format
- modified test content
- modified test format
- modified test length

- multiple test sessions
- multi-sensory presentation
- preferential seating
- preview of content, concepts, and vocabulary
- Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
- reduced/shortened reading assignments
- Reduced/shortened written assignments
- secure attention before giving instruction/directions
- shortened assignments
- student working with an assigned partner
- teacher initiated weekly assignment sheet
- Use open book, study guides, test prototypes

English Language Learning (ELL)

Please identify the English Language Learning adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

The writing process is used heavily within this course. Students that are struggling should be checked for understanding about what areas of the process they are struggling with using BME outlines, graphic organizers and assessing their prior skills.

- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

Please identify Intervention Strategies that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

The writing process is used heavily within this course. Students that are struggling should be checked for understanding about what areas of the process they are struggling with using BME outlines, graphic organizers and assessing their prior skills.

- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- collaborating (general education teacher and specialist) to modify vocabulary, omit or modify items to reflect objectives for the student, eliminate sections of the test, and determine how the grade will be determined prior to giving the test.
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- marking students' correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

Please identify the Talented and Gifted adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

A specific example would be completing a narrative essay using the same prompt listed above without the use of a graphic organizer for writing assistance. In addition, the length of the narrative can vary so that students can challenge themselves with their writing abilities. Students will also be challenged to find their own narrative on line sources for inspiration.

- Above grade level placement option for qualified students
- Advanced problem-solving
- Allow students to work at a faster pace
- Cluster grouping
- Complete activities aligned with above grade level text using Benchmark results

- Create a blog or social media page about their unit
- Create a plan to solve an issue presented in the class or in a text
- Debate issues with research to support arguments
- Flexible skill grouping within a class or across grade level for rigor
- Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery
- Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project
- Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
- Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts
- Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge

Sample Lesson

Unit Name: The Short Story

NJSLS: See attached

Interdisciplinary Connection: TECH.8.1.8.C.CS2

Statement of Objective:

- Create concrete details to describe setting for a fictional story using the wheel and spoke organizer
- Craft a paragraph for the setting of an original story

Anticipatory Set/Do Now:

- Read the opening of The Great Gatsby or choose another excerpt that is rich in details describing setting. Students should take notes on what they visualize.

Learning Activity:

- On the board, draw a circle with 6 spokes radiating from that circle and draw circles at the end of those spokes. Ask students to respond in a one-word answer to this question: "What is this place like?" Write that word in the center, then on the radiating circles, write words from the text that support the center word. For example, if a student writes the word

"wealthy" in his assessment of the Gatsby setting, write "wealthy" in the center circle. Then the words he might cull from the paragraph to support that assessment could include champagne, motor-boats, aquaplanes, Rolls-Royce, parties, and servants.

- "There was music from my neighbor's house through the summer nights. In his blue gardens men and girls came and went like moths among the whisperings and the champagne and the stars. At high tide in the afternoon I watched his guests diving from the tower of his raft, or taking the sun on the hot sand of his beach while his two motor-boats slit the waters of the Sound, drawing aquaplanes over cataracts of foam. On week-ends his Rolls-Royce became an omnibus, bearing parties to and from the city between nine in the morning and long past midnight, while his station wagon scampered like a brisk yellow bug to meet all trains. And on Mondays eight servants, including an extra gardener, toiled all day with mops and scrubbing-brushes and hammers and garden-shears, repairing the ravages of the night before."

— The Great Gatsby

- Now have students read the story they have been working on. Ask them repeat the steps they did with The Great Gatsby. Ask them: "What is the place in which your story is told, like?"
- Students should create the same wheel and spoke organizer to answer the question. Writers should then revise their stories to include concrete details to create an amazing paragraph describing the setting by showing, not telling.

Student Assessment/CFU's:

- Think, write, pair, share
- describe
- Question stem

Materials:

- handouts
- laptops
- student notebooks

21st Century Themes and Skills:

- Communication and collaboration
- Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

Differentiation/Modifications:

- Offer stems to jumpstart writing
- Highlight and emphasize important information
- Use multiple examples and nonexamples

Integration of Technology:

- Smartboard, laptops
