Interdisciplinary Connections

Craft and Structure

- LA.RH.11-12.4 Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
- LA.RH.11-12.5 Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.
- LA.RH.11-12.6 Evaluate authors' differing perspectives on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

- LA.RH.11-12.7 Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, qualitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
- LA.RH.11-12.8 Evaluate an author's claims, reasoning, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other sources.
- LA.RH.11-12.9 Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

- LA.RST.11-12 Reading Science and Technical Subjects

- LA.RST.11-12.2 Determine the central ideas, themes, or conclusions of a text; summarize complex concepts, processes, or information presented in a text by paraphrasing them in simpler but still accurate terms.
- LA.RST.11-12.3 Follow precisely a complex multistep procedure when carrying out experiments, taking measurements, or performing technical tasks; analyze the specific results based on explanations in the text.

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

PLAN

- Take an hour to get organized each week. Then, try to set up a time each day when you stop (even for 10 minutes) and organize yearbook. Do this EVERY day! Make it your system.
- Open and completely unpack your Yearbook kit. Put everything where you can find it when you need it. Be organized from the start.
- If you haven't already, get your staff organized. Appoint the leaders (editors) and get them leading. Don't become the editor yourself. You are the ADVISER not the editor or a staffer!
- Finalize your ladder. Verify your deadlines and ship date. Make sure it all works with your school calendar. If not, call your rep.
 - See the Making a Ladder article and The Page Ladder 7-Minute Starter for detailed tips.
 - Have a purpose for every spread (no blank pages, and nothing listed as “candid” or “photo collage”).
 - Decide which pages will be submitted each deadline.
 - Assign pages to students.
 - Look at school calendar for events to cover and vacations that interfere with deadlines.
- Get portrait CD from photographer (usually within 1–2 weeks after retakes).
- Mail portrait CD to Jostens using the mailer provided in your yearbook kit at least three weeks before your deadline so we can upload it. (This to-do for Yearbook Avenue created-books only.) See the Creating Portrait Pages post for detailed tips.
- Upload student list including (in separate columns) student first and last name, grade, student ID number, homeroom, address and parent email to Yearbook Avenue.
- Train staff on journalism basics: caption writing, photography, layout by using the Start Right in 7-Week Units or 7-Minute Starters.

SELL

- Make sure e-commerce is activated so you can sell yearbooks online. Talk to your rep.
- Conduct yearbook advertising push and first sales push during registration day if possible or 1st/2nd week of school at latest.
- Enter in-school yearbook sales into Yearbook Avenue.
- Set your Parent/Personal Ad sales plans. Prepare a mailer and get it out soon. Plan to do these ads on your second or third deadline.
- Choose or design your cover and endsheets if it has not been done.

CREATE

- Take LOTS of photos and upload them.
 - Yearbook Avenue Page Designer schools, upload to the Image Library. Find detailed instructions on the Image Library in the Image Library post.

CELEBRATE

- Do lots of team building activities.
- Plan your yearbook distribution. Survey your student body to find out how they want to receive the books this fall. Their ideas can help you plan a successful distribution event. Get more ideas in the Distribution 7-Minute Starter.
