Unit Overview

Different events in history have influenced and changed the way people have dressed throughout time. Some of the most popular are classic. They can stand the test of time and hardly ever go out of style. Other fashion items could be considered fads style and are popular for a short season and then never worn again. Often certain fashion trends are dependent on the tastes of particular groups of people and are usually associated with social status or cultural preferences. Fashion can also be influenced by world events such as war or the economy. Popular fashions reflect the mood of each decade and showcase changes in society as the styles of clothing and accessories evolved with the times.

Enduring Understanding

- Communication is a skill that is developed.
- Interests, aptitudes and abilities are related to career choices.
- Fashion and clothing design has changed over time influenced by many factors.
- Fashion has evolved from early civilizations, throughout history to today's current styles.
- Fashion choices represent personal tastes, lifestyles, cultures, income and outside influences.

Essential Questions

- Where did the first clothes and fabrics originate?
- What influences in the fashion world have affected style?
- How do I interpret fashion time periods?
- What was the industrial revolution and how did it change the fashion industry?
- Who developed the ready-to-wear concept?
- What does clothing fashion say about a person?
- How do you dress for a job interview?
- How would you interpret fashion influences to design your own fashion creations.

Exit Skills

- Describe your personal interests, aptitudes and abilities as they relate to fashion industry.
- Research, discuss and present information pertaining to the history of fashion.
- Create a timeline illustrating the revolution of fashion.
- Explain how past time periods, countries and cultures affected different fashion styles.
- Explain the influences trade, politics, religion and technology have had on the fashion industry.
- Research today's fashion styles and current fashion designers.
- Report on a fashion designer and his/her influence on history.
- Create a fashion design you would wear, that would represent your tastes and personality.
