- Communication and Collaboration
- Creativity and Innovation
- Critical thinking and Problem Solving
- Life and Career Skills
- Media Literacy

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP6.1	Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.

CRP.K-12.CRP8.1

Career-ready individuals readily recognize problems in the workplace, understand the nature of the problem, and devise effective plans to solve the problem. They are aware of problems when they occur and take action quickly to address the problem; they thoughtfully investigate the root cause of the problem prior to introducing solutions. They carefully consider the options to solve the problem. Once a solution is agreed upon, they follow through to ensure the problem is solved, whether through their own actions or the actions of others.

CAEP.9.2.8.B.4

Evaluate how traditional and nontraditional careers have evolved regionally, nationally, and globally.

21st Century Skills

---

- Civic Literacy
- Environmental Literacy
- Financial, Economic, Business and Entrepreneurial Literacy
- Global Awareness
- Health Literacy

Differentiation

- When working on a project, students who are struggling with finishing a project will be given more time to do so.
- At the beginning of each class, to ensure that all students are aware of their goal, it will be written clearly on the board and read aloud.
- When working on a project for multiple weeks, an oral review of the work already completed to remind students of their progress will be given.

Differentiations:

- Extra time to complete assignments
- Repeat directions
- Use manipulatives
- Multisensory approaches
- Additional time
- Preview vocabulary
- Visual presentation

Hi-Prep Differentiations:

- Independent research and projects
- Project-based learning

Lo-Prep Differentiations

- Choice of books or activities
- Goal setting with students

- Varied supplemental materials

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

At Risk

1. Have student choose 3 or 4 different elements of art they would like to work with for each project in the unit.
2. Give time after project to review project with student. Which elements did they feel most confident in working with, which ones did they find more difficult?

- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- collaborating (general education teacher and specialist) to modify vocabulary, omit or modify items to reflect objectives for the student, eliminate sections of the test, and determine how the grade will be determined prior to giving the test.
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- marking students' correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
- tutoring by peers
- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

- Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts
- Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge

Sample Lesson

Unit Name: Jen Stark Illustrations

NJSLS: Attached to the flagged section

Interdisciplinary Connection: Math

Statement of Objective: Students will learn about artist Jen Stark, color and pattern while creating an illustration inspired by her artwork.

Anticipatory Set/Do Now: Lesson will start with an introduction to the artist. I'll give students a brief background on Jen Stark and show the different pieces of her artwork. We'll have time to critique her work, talking about what they like/dislike about her art and why. Once we are done with critiquing, I will show students a sample of the project we'll be making for this lesson; an illustration based off of her artwork.

Learning Activity: Students will be given a piece of white paper, pencils, and erasers. We'll start by making two "dripping" shapes, one on each top corner of the paper. We'll take one section, and lightly draw lines that follow the curves of the drips, making almost a striped pattern in the section. Once the lines are completely drawn for those sections, students will pick a color scheme of their choice to color that section in, making a pattern of their choosing. Once a section is done, they'll repeat this process in a new "dripping" section until the entire paper is full.

Student Assessment/CFU's: While showing students artist's work, were students able to critique it? Were students able to identify the use of line and pattern in her work, as well as their own? If so, is this apparent in their final project? After the initial artist introduction, were students able to identify the artist and their artwork?

Materials: Mr.Sketch Markers, pencils, paper, erasers.

21st Century Themes and Skills: attached below

Differentiation: More time, space and hands-on assistance if needed or requested.

Integration of Technology: Use of laptop and smartboard for artist/artwork display.
