Prepared by: Ms. Erica Barbosa

Dr. Richard Tomko, Ph.D., M.J., Superintendent of Schools

Ms. LucyAnn Demikoff, Director of Curriculum and Instruction K-12

Ms. Nicole Shanklin, Director of Elementary Education

Mr. George Droste, Director of Secondary Education

Board Approved: September 23, 2019

Unit Overview

- Identify what a bully is.
- The different types of a bully and ways in which you can counteract bullying and diffuse any potential bullying situations.
- Ideologically, bullying is an extremely prevalent item into today's society, negatively effecting the lives of many students throughout the country.
- The idea of teaching this unit to our students allows them to analyze what to look for in a bully, ways in which a bully may target victims, as well as ways to stop ongoing incidents or incidents that may take play. Understanding items in this unit will allow student lifelong anti bullying skills, while understanding their surroundings.
- Topics: 1. Bullying and Harassment
- 2. Cyberbullying
- 3. Strategies to stop bullying
- 4. Promoting Safe Schools.
- Students will learn what bullying and harassment is.
- How one becomes a bully and how to stop bullying.
- Ultimately making their school or community safer. It is important for students to understand the several skills involved in removing themselves and others from certain bullying situations.

Enduring Understandings

- Define bullying and harassment.
- Explain how people become bullies and describes the effects of bullying.
- Show how cyberbullying differs from regular bullying and offers tips for protection from cyberbullying.
- Describes strategies for stopping bullying behavior.
- Identifies how to create a school environment that is safe from bullying.
- Students should understand that bullying is something that takes place in many settings and in many different ways.
- Bullying is not subject to just schools, but can take place in many situations with adults as well as children.
- Understand mechanisms to counter bullying, and determine a system for reporting bullying.
- Harassment: Verbal bullying, social bullying, physical bullying
- Cyberbullying: Persistent, Permanent, hard to notice
- Stopping Bullying: tell a trusted adult, intervene and get someone immediately, report serious situations to the proper attention, never assist the bully.

Essential Questions

- What are at least three negative effects of cyberbullying on the victim?
- Find ads in magazines or newspapers or on the Internet, and/or watch television commercials designed to stop bullying. How are the ads effective? How might the ads be more effective?
- Shayna is being teased repeatedly by Dejon. His sexual remarks bother her. She doesn't know what to do. What advice do you have for Shayna?
- What would you do to keep yourself safe walking home if you were worried about being bullied outside of school?
- Who can help prevent bullying in schools?
- What are three warning signs of being a bully?
- What are three things you can do to take a stand to stop the bullying if you do not feel safe being face-to-face with the bully?
- When Seth walks away from a fight, he hears his bully call him “chicken.” What should Seth do? Explain.
- Zoey recently moved from a different part of the country. She speaks with an accent that is different than that of the students in her new school. Kathy, a girl in her class, imitates Zoey’s accent, teasing her whenever she speaks. Kathy’s teasing really bothers Zoey. What should she do?
