Nouns and adjectives are used to illustrate anything.

Noun and adjective agreement is more apparent in the target language.

Why are adjectives so important in presenting yourself or other people?

How can I use adjectives to describe things I like and dislike?

Exit Skills

Students will be able to:

Categorize nouns in their gender; masculine or feminine.

Identify the masculine, feminine articles.

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

Enunciate the article of nouns, which directs the gender, so students may distinguish more easily when listening.

Make it a habit to identify the gender of nouns as they are presented for greater recall.

Assessment Evidence - Checking for Understanding (CFU)

Put various articles on the board for students to create different lists from them.

When a noun is stated by teacher, students identify it's gender.
