Unit Overview

Students learn to engage in two-way communication in each topic area, asking and responding to questions, making comments and expressing feelings, using given vocabulary and phrases. They may also learn underlying grammatical features and structures, relevant to the particular topic and target language, to make possible grammatically accurate, original comments. Built into the unit is an attention to a relevant body of cognates, enabling students to acquire a great number of significant and immediately usable vocabulary. The unit will involve listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students will explore and relate to the similarities and differences that exist between English and the target language.

- Identify and utilize vocabulary for physical characteristics.
- Identify and express vocabulary for personality traits.
- Describe self and others with some detail.
- Create and respond to simple questions and phrases regarding self and others.
- Identify and supply vocabulary for leisure activities and sports.

Enduring Understanding
