Unit Overview

Unit 4 – Critique

1. Allow students to verbalize a detailed analysis and evaluation of a work of art.
2. Allow students to gather basic information such as, artist's name, when the piece was created, and where it was made.
3. Allow students to explore personal description, analysis, interpretation, and judgment of a work of art.
4. Allow students to discover the diversity in and connections among forms of artistic expression throughout history and from around the globe.
5. Allow students to learn about how people have responded to and communicated their experiences through art making by exploring art in its historic and cultural contexts.
6. Welcome students into the global art world as active participants, engaging with its forms and content as they research, discuss, read, and write about art, artists, art making, and responses to and interpretations of art.
7. Explore global art with the development of deep conceptual understandings and art historical skills.

Enduring Understanding

1. Artists can communicate artistic ideas and evaluations of a work of art.
2. Aesthetic knowledge fosters artistic appreciation and critical analysis.
3. Aesthetic knowledge facilitates interpretation of both one's individuality and that of others.
4. An artist's style is developed by constant and thorough exploration of different media and techniques.
5. Understanding "Reading" a work of art as: (1) describing what you see (2) analyzing the relationships between what you saw (3) interpreting the meaning of the work (4) evaluating or making a personal judgment about the quality and worth of the art.
4. An artist's style is developed by constant and thorough exploration of different media and techniques.
5. Artists take risks by questioning the traditional use of materials and methods.
6. Artists take risks by questioning social norms and cultural traditions.

Essential Questions

1. How does one "Read" other artist's aesthetic?
2. What role does critique play in other artist's final outcome of a work of art?
3. How will your knowledge of art and life help you to come up with your best guess as to the interpretation of a work of art.
4. What role will art play in your life?
5. Why should you care about other people's art?
6. How do I show my growing knowledge of visual art through critique?

Exit Skills

Upon completion of Unit 4, students should have acquired the ability to:

1. Use complete sentences to describe what they see in the work of art.
2. Use complete sentences to analyze the artist's use of the Elements of Art and the Principles of Design within the work.
3. Use complete sentences to interpret what they have already discovered about the work of art.
4. Develop a good guess about the meaning of the work.
5. Use complete sentences to make a judgment about the work's worth based on the information they have gathered about the work.
6. Judgments must be supported by what they have learned through the first 4 steps of Understanding "Reading" a work of art as: (1) describing what you see (2) analyzing the relationships between what you saw (3) interpreting the meaning of the work (4) evaluating or making a personal judgment about the quality and worth of the art.
7. They must give reasons for their judgments.

Learning Objectives

1. Identify differentiated components for reading art.
2. Recognize and describe works of art in terms of the use of the design principles and in written materials.
3. Differentiate between objective and subjective thoughts.
4. Recognize the role critique plays in other artist's final outcome of a work of art
5. Incorporate proper use of vocabulary throughout the critiquing process.
6. Recognize the cause and effect relationship between art and society as seen throughout history.
7. Formulate an opinion on artwork of different styles, genres and historical periods.

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

1. Practice the method of critiquing to discover the meaning of a work of art.
2. Follow a step-by-step process of logical thinking.
3. Demonstrate and display works of art to be "Read" as a work of art based on what you see, analyzing the relationships between what you see, interpreting the meaning of the work, and evaluating or making a personal judgment about the quality and worth of the art.
4. Daily observation of individual student learning.

Differentiation

1. Students will have the same subject matter but will have different outcomes.
2. Progress will be the same but the product will be different.
3. Guided instruction, direct instruction, group instruction.
4. Assist students with IEP & 504 guidelines.
5. Study guides, group and peer instruction, extended time/ test time, oral testing
6. Small group instruction
7. Small group assignments
8. Extra time to complete assignments
9. Pairing oral instruction with visuals
10. Repeat directions
11. Scheduled breaks
12. Rephrase written directions
13. Alternative formative and summative assessment
14. Leveled rubrics
15. Project-based learning
16. Exploration by interest
17. Open-ended activities

Differentiations:

- Small group instruction
- Small group assignments

- Extra time to complete assignments
- Pairing oral instruction with visuals
- Repeat directions
- Use manipulatives
- Center-based instruction
- Token economy
- Study guides
- Teacher reads assessments allowed
- Scheduled breaks
- Rephrase written directions
- Multisensory approaches
- Additional time
- Preview vocabulary
- Preview content & concepts
- Story guides
- Behavior management plan
- Highlight text
- Student(s) work with assigned partner
- Visual presentation
- Assistive technology
- Auditory presentations
- Large print edition
- Dictation to scribe
- Small group setting

Hi-Prep Differentiations:

- Alternative formative and summative assessments
- Choice boards
- Games and tournaments
- Group investigations
- Guided Reading
- Independent research and projects
- Interest groups
- Learning contracts
- Leveled rubrics
- Literature circles
- Multiple intelligence options
- Multiple texts
- Personal agendas
- Project-based learning
- Problem-based learning
- Stations/centers
- Think-Tac-Toes
- Tiered activities/assignments
- Tiered products
- Varying organizers for instructions

Lo-Prep Differentiations

- Choice of books or activities
- Cubing activities
- Exploration by interest

- Flexible grouping
- Goal setting with students
- Jigsaw
- Mini workshops to re-teach or extend skills
- Open-ended activities
- Think-Pair-Share
- Reading buddies
- Varied journal prompts
- Varied supplemental materials

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

Special Education Learning adaptations that will be employed in the unit

- Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
- Additional time for skill mastery
- Have student repeat directions
- Check work frequently for understanding
- Secure attention before giving instructions
- Extended time on quizzes
- Preferential seating
- Printed Copy of text
- Assistive technology

- printed copy of board work/notes provided
- additional time for skill mastery
- assistive technology
- behavior management plan
- Center-Based Instruction
- check work frequently for understanding
- computer or electronic device utilizes
- extended time on tests/ quizzes
- have student repeat directions to check for understanding
- highlighted text visual presentation
- modified assignment format
- modified test content
- modified test format
- modified test length

- multiple test sessions
- multi-sensory presentation
- preferential seating
- preview of content, concepts, and vocabulary
- Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
- reduced/shortened reading assignments
- Reduced/shortened written assignments
- secure attention before giving instruction/directions
- shortened assignments
- student working with an assigned partner
- teacher initiated weekly assignment sheet
- Use open book, study guides, test prototypes

English Language Learning (ELL)

- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
 - teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
 - having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
 - providing study guides
 - allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
 - reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
 - allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
 - provide an interpreter
 - translate study guides

- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
 - using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
 - tutoring by peers
 - having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
 - providing study guides
 - allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
 - marking student's correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
 - reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
 - allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
 - modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
 - allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
 - communication with counselor, parent/guardians in reference to the lesson.
 - after school project/specific tutoring
 - extra one-on-one class time.

 - using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

- Create a blog or social media page about their unit
 - Debate issues with research to support arguments
 - Complete activities aligned with above grade level text using Benchmark results
 - Advanced problem-solving
 - Above grade level placement option for qualified students
 - Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery
 - Flexible skill grouping within a class or across grade level for rigor
 - Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
 - Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project
 - Allow students to work at a faster pace
 - Communicating with parent/guardian regarding after school classes
 - Communicating with parent/guardian regarding college opportunities
 - Offering after school art experiences

 - Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
 - Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts
 - Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge

Sample Lesson

ART CRITIQUE

NJSLS: See links below

Interdisciplinary Connection: World History - global/contemporary perspectives, World Language - big ideas, words, phrases, these, art influences large numbers of people, ELA - reading and writing about art

Statement of Objective: Students learn about the basic components of art criticism using art vocabulary through their knowledge of art movements and genres.

Anticipatory Set/Do Now: Class watches the lesson Art Criticism: Definition, Function & Examples, Hold a short discussion about the content.

Learning Activity: Students participate in a group activity where they use vocabulary and the principles in the lesson to critique artwork, students view different popular pieces of art that are abstract enough to leave room for multiple interpretations.

Student Assessment/CFU's: Individual critiques - formative assessment; Group critiques - formative assessment

Materials: Art Criticism: Definition, Function & Examples

21st Century Themes and Skills: Global awareness, Environmental literacy, Civic literacy, Communication and Collaboration, Creativity and Innovation, Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

Differentiation/Modification: Students will have same subject matter but will have different outcomes, Groups and peer instruction, extra time to complete assignments.

Integration of Technology: Internet access, Google Classroom, Google slide presentations.
