Unit Overview

In this unit students will make the connection between the U.S. Constitution and the criminal justice system. Students will begin to interpret the Constitution and discover the rights of due process of law. Students will study the 4th & 5th Amendments and other basic human rights protections afforded by the Bill of Rights. Students will study landmark U.S. Supreme Court decisions defining our rights and the limits on government power in enforcing the law.

Enduring Understanding

Patrick Henry said "The Constitution is not an instrument for the government to restrain the people, it is an instrument for the people to restrain the government." With this in mind students will discover the relationship between the U.S. Constitution and the Criminal Justice System (CJS). Students will comprehend issues of due process and police use of force and how the U.S. Constitution protects citizens rights. Students will realize the power of the Constitution as a shield against human rights violations by individuals, businesses or the government. Students will observe the evolution of the CJS as individual, social, and political norms change and observe how courtroom procedure is designed to guarantee equal and fair application of the law.

Essential Questions

What is due process of law and how is it reflected in the Constitution?

What is criminal procedure?

How does the Bill of Rights protect human rights?

How does the Constitution limit police power?

What is the right against self-incrimination?

How did the case of Miranda v. Arizona (1966) define police procedure?

When are Miranda warnings required?

When are Miranda warnings not necessary?

How have the U.S. Supreme Court decisions in Weeks v. U.S. (1914) & Mapp v. Ohio (1961) The Exclusionary Rule, Terry v. Ohio (1968) Stop and Frisk, and Horton v. California (1990) The Plain View Doctrine shaped criminal justice in America?

Exit Skills

By the end of Unit 3 students will demonstrate the ability to;

Define due process of law and explain how it is reflected in the Constitution.

Define criminal procedure and explain how the Bill of Rights provides human rights protections.

Explain how the Constitution limits police power.

Explain the right against self-incrimination.

Explain how the case of Miranda v. Arizona (1966) defined police procedure.

Identify when Miranda warnings required and not necessary.

Explain the legal doctrines of the Exclusionary Rule, Stop and Frisk, and The Plain View Doctrine and identify when they apply.

- Civic Literacy
- Financial, Economic, Business and Entrepreneurial Literacy
- Global Awareness

Differentiation

Please remember: Effective educational Differentiation in a lesson lies within content, process, and/or product.

- Students will be given additional time for completion of assignments or assessments.
- Cooperative grouping to enhance and elevate student productivity.
- Use of visual and auditory presentations to introduce and support lesson delivery.

Please identify the ones that will be employed in this unit.

Differentiations:

- Small group instruction
- Small group assignments
- Extra time to complete assignments
- Pairing oral instruction with visuals
- Repeat directions
- Use manipulatives
- Center-based instruction
- Token economy
- Study guides
- Teacher reads assessments allowed
- Scheduled breaks
- Rephrase written directions
- Multisensory approaches
- Additional time
- Preview vocabulary

- Preview content & concepts
- Story guides
- Behavior management plan
- Highlight text
- Student(s) work with assigned partner
- Visual presentation
- Assistive technology
- Auditory presentations
- Large print edition
- Dictation to scribe
- Small group setting

Hi-Prep Differentiations:

- Alternative formative and summative assessments
- Choice boards
- Games and tournaments
- Group investigations
- Guided Reading
- Independent research and projects
- Interest groups
- Learning contracts
- Leveled rubrics
- Literature circles
- Multiple intelligence options
- Multiple texts
- Personal agendas
- Project-based learning
- Problem-based learning
- Stations/centers
- Think-Tac-Toes
- Tiered activities/assignments
- Tiered products
- Varying organizers for instructions

Lo-Prep Differentiations

- Choice of books or activities
- Cubing activities
- Exploration by interest
- Flexible grouping
- Goal setting with students
- Jigsaw
- Mini workshops to re-teach or extend skills
- Open-ended activities
- Think-Pair-Share
- Reading buddies
- Varied journal prompts
- Varied supplemental materials

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

Please identify the Special Education Learning adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

- Students will work in cooperative groups to prepare Unit outline
 - Students will use Unit outline to complete Unit assignments and assessments
 - Students will work cooperatively to identify constitutional protections for a person accused of criminal behavior
- printed copy of board work/notes provided
 - additional time for skill mastery
 - assistive technology
 - behavior management plan
 - check work frequently for understanding
 - computer or electronic device utilizes
 - extended time on tests/ quizzes
 - modified assignment format
 - modified test content
 - modified test format
 - modified test length
 - multiple test sessions
 - multi-sensory presentation
 - preferential seating
 - preview of content, concepts, and vocabulary
 - Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
 - reduced/shortened reading assignments
 - Reduced/shortened written assignments
 - secure attention before giving instruction/directions
 - shortened assignments
 - student working with an assigned partner
 - Use open book, study guides, test prototypes

English Language Learning (ELL)

Please identify the English Language Learning adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

- Students will work with a peer tutor on Unit assignments and assessments
- Assignments will be modified to enable students to focus on selected objectives such as legal vocabulary by providing a glossary

- Students and teacher will use translation apps to enable students to focus on selected objectives such as legal vocabulary
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

Please identify Intervention Strategies that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

- Students will be provided with Unit PowerPoint study guide
- Students will be allowed to use study guide/outline on Unit assessments
- Alternate assessments will be used such as Reaction Papers focusing on constitutional issues in Criminal Law
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- marking students' correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- tutoring by peers
- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

Please identify the Talented and Gifted adaptations that will be employed in the unit, using the ones identified below.

- Students will use Legal Reasoning problem solving skills to resolve Criminal Law cases
 - Students will work in groups to represent the prosecution and defense in a criminal case and present arguments to student jurors
 - Students will identify a current criminal law issue and present the issue and arguments on class web page for other students to participate in a threaded discussion
- Advanced problem-solving
 - Allow students to work at a faster pace
 - Cluster grouping
 - Create a plan to solve an issue presented in the class or in a text
 - Debate issues with research to support arguments
 - Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery
 - Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project
 - Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
 - Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge
