Unit Overview

Similar to the first unit, Unit 2 is designed to provide students with opportunities to internalize, process and produce the target language encouraging the development of speaking, listening, reading and writing skills. The unit is designed to build on and expand the control of basic grammatical structures by interweaving vocabulary and functions into meaningful and authentic activities that emphasize all three modes of communication: interpretive, interpersonal and presentational. Cultural knowledge and understanding of the target culture is integrated into course content.

Enduring Understanding

Language proficiency in more than one language expands the appreciation of differences in cultural practices, products, and perspectives.

Cultural acquisition occurs simultaneously with language acquisition and not in an isolated manner.

Reading helps people understand the world around them.

Effective communication requires certain rules to be followed.

Effective communication in English facilitates the acquisition of academic language.

Essential Questions

How can I use parts of speech to accomplish my goals?

How can I read for meaning and understanding?

What are the most essential parts of speech to understand?

How do I identify the correct form of grammar and syntax when speaking and writing?

How can I work on my grammar? What do I need to memorize and to what should I listen?

What strategies are used for reading and how are they useful for reading?

Exit Skills

By the end of the unit, students will be able to:

Use selected vocabulary in various forms of communication

Use relevant grammar in various forms of communication.

Acquire basic vocabulary and Tier 1 words.

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

Student Centered Learning: Students should either have already selected groups or groups of their choosing and be ready to answer higher order thinking discussion questions related to the theme or topic of the piece of literature being discussed.

Use of Rubrics: After discussing an assignment, allow students to create what they believe to be a fair rubric for assessing the assignment. This allows the students to have a say in how they will be graded as well as accountability for the assignment.

Allowing students to choose their own projects: Having a variety of projects that the students can choose from helps address all learning types. This will allow the students to choose the project they feel they can be most successful in completing.

Brainstorming: This helps in the writing process because it will allow the student to know if they are grasping the topic.

Google Translate: Students should be allowed to utilize Google translate when unfamiliar with terms, expressions and unfamiliar vocabulary.

English Language Learning (ELL)

Modify the quantity of work so that it is aligned with the level of the student in the language acquisition process.

Have fluent peers work with less proficient students.

Have materials available in the learners L1 when possible.

- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

Research visual materials with English subtitles to help assist with the understanding of material.

Allow students to use bilingual dictionaries to research unfamiliar terms.

Edit material to shorter more meaningful passages.
