Unit Overview

This unit will focus on the student's ability to make life decisions. They will understand consequences, pros and cons, and risks involved. Students will learn about the different roles that make up a healthy relationship and how self esteem factors in. The students will also be exposed to effective skills of communication (listening, speaking and refusal skills) and problems that may arise from poor communication within a relationship. The students will learn about harmful relationships such as abuse, sexual assault and bullying. Students will also learn how to identify bullying situations. Cyberbullying, the potential dangers of cell phones and social media will also be covered. Students will also examine the correlation between bullying and suicide.

Enduring Understanding

- Effective communication is the basis for strengthening interpersonal interactions and relationships and resolving conflicts.
- Communicating health needs to trusted adults and professionals assists in the prevention, early detection, and treatment of health problems.
- There are several forms of communication other than verbal.
- The ability to communicate what you want clearly is an essential life skill.

- Words have a lasting impact; it is important to think before you speak.
- Nothing you post/send is private; once it is out there, it is out there.

Essential Questions

- What are the personal and interpersonal life choices that will maximize lifelong wellness?
- Why is it important to have healthful family relationships?
- How does my emotional health influence my relationships with others?
- How do I know if I am in a healthy peer relationship?
- Why is communication important in our daily lives?
- What are effective communication skills which can be used to create healthy relationships?
- How can you prevent and resolve conflicts?
- How can we recognize the warning signs of someone being bullied/harassed?
- What are the short and long term effects to students who are constantly bullied and harassed?
- How can you cope with bullying/cyberbullying in a constructive way?
- Why is it important to respect the differences in others?
- What are three types of relationships?
- What is the function of dating?
- What traits are desired in a long-term relationship?

Exit Skills

- Effective communication is essential to a healthy relationship in family, work and community settings.
- Communicating ideas effectively is essential to successful interactions with others.
- Decision making and problem solving skills help to manage and reduce conflict

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

- printed copy of board work/notes provided
- additional time for skill mastery
- assistive technology
- behavior management plan
- Center-Based Instruction
- · check work frequently for understanding
- computer or electronic device utilizes
- extended time on tests/ quizzes
- · have student repeat directions to check for understanding

- highlighted text visual presentation
- modified assignment format
- modified test content
- modified test format
- modified test length
- multi-sensory presentation
- · multiple test sessions
- preferential seating
- preview of content, concepts, and vocabulary
- Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
- Provide Note taking sheets
- reduced/shortened reading assignments
- Reduced/shortened written assignments
- secure attention before giving instruction/directions
- shortened assignments
- student working with an assigned partner
- · teacher initiated weekly assignment sheet
- Use open book, study guides, test prototypes
- · Use visuals such as video clips and pictures

English Language Learning (ELL)

- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- · using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarif
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- · decreasing the amount of workpresented or required
- Glencoe Comprehensive Health and Human Sexuality Translated Materials
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test

- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing

- · reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- · tutoring by peers
- Use powerpoint in conjunction with notes
- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
- video analysis

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

- Above grade level placement option for qualified students
- Advanced problem-solving
- Allow students to work at a faster pace
- · Cluster grouping
- Complete activities aligned with above grade level text using Benchmark results
- Create a blog or social media page about their unit
- Create a plan to solve an issue presented in the class or in a text
- Create campaigns to demonstrate advocacy

- Debate issues with research to support arguments
- Flexible skill grouping within a class or across grade level for rigor
- Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery
- Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project
- Student-led review groups
- Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
- Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts
- · Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge
