Unit Overview

This Unit will focus on changes in U.S. politics and how it has influenced the theoretical purposes of punishment within the Criminal Justice System. Liberal political movements enabled the judicial and executive branches wielded power in sentencing. Legislators designed sentencing laws with rehabilitation in mind. During politically conservative movements, legislators seized power over sentencing, and a combination of theories—deterrence, retribution, and incapacitation—have influenced sentencing laws. The Unit will cover the imposition of hardship in response to misconduct in our society. Students will study how human transgressions have been punished in various ways throughout history. Students will study the governments ability to impose punishments such as community service, monetary fines, forfiture of property, restitution to victims, confinement in jail or prison, and even death.

Enduring Understanding

Changes in U.S. politics has influenced the theoretical purposes of punishment within the Criminal Justice System. Liberal political movements enabled legislators to design sentencing laws with rehabilitation in mind. During politically conservative movements, legislators seized power over sentencing, and a combination of theories—deterrence, retribution, and incapacitation—have influenced sentencing laws. Human transgressions have been punished in various ways throughout history. The government is authorized by the people to impose hardship in response to misconduct in our society. Theories of punishment can be divided into two general philosophies: utilitarian and retributive. The utilitarian theory of punishment seeks to punish offenders to discourage, or "deter," future wrongdoing. The retributive theory seeks to punish offenders because they deserve to be punished. Punishments such as community service, monetary fines, forfiture of property, restitution to victims, confinement in jail or prison, and even death are possible. Correctional theories identify what the purpose of the correctional system should be and what policies should be implemented. Historically, the popularity of competing correctional theories has been shaped by the prevailing social context.

Essential Questions

How do changes in U.S. politics influence the theoretical purposes of punishment within the Criminal Justice System?
Can liberal and conservative political movements change the ideology of sentencing laws?
In what ways have human transgressions been punished throughout history?
Where does the government derive its power to impose hardship in response to misconduct in our society?
What type of punishments is the government authorized to impose?

Exit Skills

By the end of this Unit students will demonstrate the ability to;

Explain how U.S. politics has influenced the theoretical purposes of punishment within the Criminal Justice System.
Distinguish between conservative and liberal political movements and describe how these political movements influence sentencing laws.
Explain the theories of deterrence, retribution, and incapacitation—have influenced sentencing laws.
Describe how human transgressions have been punished in various ways throughout history.
Identify the governments power to impose hardship in response to misconduct in our society.
Define punishments such as community service, monetary fines, forfiture of property, restitution to victims, confinement in jail or prison, and even death are possible.

New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS-S)

12.9.3.LW.1	Analyze the nature and scope of the Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security Career Cluster and the role law, public safety, corrections and security play in society and the economy.
12.9.3.LW.2	Formulate ideas, proposals and solutions to ensure effective and efficient delivery of law, public safety, corrections and/or security services.
12.9.3.LW.5	Analyze the various laws, ordinances, regulations and organizational rules that apply to careers in law, public safety, corrections and security.
12.9.3.LW.6	Describe various career opportunities and means to those opportunities in each of the Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security Career Pathways.
12.9.3.LW-COR.1	Evaluate the correctional environment for signs of potential problems and/or danger.
12.9.3.LW-COR.3	Analyze the impact of federal, state and local laws on correctional facilities.
12.9.3.LW-COR.5	Describe the legal, regulatory and organizational guidelines governing the correction services.
12.9.3.LW-COR.6	Compare and contrast different career fields in the correction services.
12.9.3.LW-COR.7	Demonstrate effective communication skills (e.g., writing, speaking, active listening and nonverbal communication) in the correctional environment.
12.9.3.LW-COR.8	Analyze the techniques used to manage crisis situations and resolve conflicts in correctional environments.
SOC.6.1.12.A.14.b	Analyze how the Supreme Court has interpreted the Constitution to define the rights of the individual, and evaluate the impact on public policies.
SOC.6.1.12.A.14.c	Assess the merit and effectiveness of recent legislation in addressing the health, welfare, and citizenship status of individuals and groups.

Interdisciplinary Connections

LA.RH.11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, qualitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LA.WHST.11-12.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
LA.WHST.11-12.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LA.WHST.11-12.9	Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
CRP.K-12.CRP1.1	Career-ready individuals understand the obligations and responsibilities of being a member of a community, and they demonstrate this understanding every day through their interactions with others. They are conscientious of the impacts of their decisions on others and the environment around them. They think about the near-term and long-term consequences of their actions and seek to act in ways that contribute to the betterment of their teams, families, community and workplace. They are reliable and consistent in going beyond the minimum expectation and in participating in activities that serve the greater good.

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

- Modified assignments
- Additional time for assignments and assessments

- additional time for skill mastery
- assistive technology
- behavior management plan
- Center-Based Instruction
- check work frequently for understanding
- computer or electronic device utilizes
- extended time on tests/ quizzes
- have student repeat directions to check for understanding
- highlighted text visual presentation
- modified assignment format
- modified test content
- modified test format
- modified test length

- Reduced/shortened written assignments
- secure attention before giving instruction/directions
- shortened assignments
- student working with an assigned partner
- teacher initiated weekly assignment sheet
- Use open book, study guides, test prototypes

English Language Learning (ELL)

- Providing assignments/assessments in native language

- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarif
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of workpresented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

- Modified assignments and assessments

- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- collaborating (general education teacher and specialist) to modify vocabulary, omit or modify items to reflect objectives for the student, eliminate sections of the test, and determine how the grade will be determined prior to giving the test.
- decreasing the amount of workpresented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- marking students' correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives

- providing study guides

- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments

- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test

- tutoring by peers

- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving

- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

- Providing additional Case Studies for in-depth analysis

- Above grade level placement option for qualified students

- Advanced problem-solving

- Allow students to work at a faster pace

- Cluster grouping

- Complete activities aligned with above grade level text using Benchmark results

- Create a blog or social media page about their unit

- Create a plan to solve an issue presented in the class or in a text

- Debate issues with research to support arguments

- Flexible skill grouping within a class or across grade level for rigor

- Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery

- Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project

- Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities

- Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts

- Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge
