Unit Overview

Unit 6 will explore the roots of our involvement in Vietnam, another example of containment. It was a brutal war that caused a division within the US. This experience stayed with anyone who fought in the war as well as their families. This movement against the war in the US caused the relationship between the people and the government to change forever. America's involvement in Vietnam began in 1950, during the French Indochina War, the name given to France's attempt to reestablish its rule in Vietnam after World War II. Seeking to strengthen its ties with France and to help fight the spread of communism, the United States provided the French with massive economic and military support.

Enduring Understanding

1. American involvement in Vietnam has its roots in the end of the first two World Wars.
2. American policy in Vietnam is the logical consequence of adherence to both containment and the domino theory.
3. The violence and brutality of the Vietnam War affected soldiers and changed the perception of Americans both at home and abroad.

4. The Vietnam War caused deep divisions both politically and emotionally within the US.
5. 1968 was a watershed year in American history, from which our political system and society have never been the same.
6. The withdrawal of American soldiers from Vietnam was very slow and gradual to allow the US to achieve "peace with honor".
7. The Vietnam experience left a permanent mark on the people who fought in it and the country as a whole.
8. The relationship between the American government and its people was never the same after Vietnam and 1968.

Essential Questions

1. Why did Ho Chi Minh ask to meet Wilson at Versailles and read from the American Declaration of Independence at a 1945 speech in Vietnam?
2. How did containment and the Domino Theory affect US foreign policy from 1945-1975?
3. Why can Vietnam be considered different from any previous American War?
4. How united was the US as the war dragged into months and then years?
5. Why was America fundamentally different after the events of 1968?
6. Why did Nixon insist on a policy of Vietnamization when the American public overwhelmingly wanted out of the Vietnam War?
7. What does the treatment of Americans who returned from Vietnam say about America as a country and Americans as people?

Exit Skills

By the end of Unit 6

1. Students should be able to apply domain-specific vocabulary in their verbal and written responses, essays and papers.
2. Students should be able to choose a side to a query and provide logical argument for their choice.
3. Students should be able to deductively use new information and logically apply this evidence to a related problem.
4. Students should be able to inductively gather information and deduce a theory based on their findings.
5. Students should be able to gather information in meaningful clusters and apply their findings to specific problems.

Write an persuasive essay that answers this question:

Should the United States have gotten involved in the conflict in Vietnam?

1. Your essay should include the key people, decisions, and circumstances behind the United States' involvement in the conflict in Vietnam.

New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS-S)

SOC.6.1.12	U.S. History: America in the World: All students will acquire the knowledge and skills to think analytically about how past and present interactions of people, cultures, and the environment shape the American heritage. Such knowledge and skills enable students to make informed decisions that reflect fundamental rights and core democratic values as productive citizens in local, national, and global communities.
SOC.6.1.12.9	Contemporary United States (1970-Today)
SOC.6.1.12.D.15.a	Compare United Nations policies and goals (i.e., the International Declaration of Human Rights and the United Nations Millennium Development Goals) intended to promote human rights and prevent the violation of human rights with actions taken by the United States.
SOC.6.3.12.C.1	Participate in a simulated meeting (e.g., President's Council, World Bank, International Monetary Fund (IMF)), research evidence from multiple sources about an economic problem, (e.g., inflation, unemployment, deficit), and develop a plan of action.

Interdisciplinary Connections

Witness for the Prosecution—High school students take on the role of investigative journalist and read the play Witness for the Prosecution by Agatha Christie. After each act of the play, students write news stories using facts from the play.

needed or used.

Effective Learning Objectives Used in Lesson Planning:

- Begin with an action verb from one or more of Bloom's Taxonomy categories listed below;
- Are measurable and/or observable, using action verbs, such as "differentiate," "classify," "justify;"
- Are not vague or passive verbs, such as "understand," "remember;"
- Increase the use of verbs from Bloom's Taxonomy's higher order thinking categories, including Analyze and Evaluate
- Construct authentic learning activities and assessments that are derived from the Bloom's Taxonomy category - Create
- Minimize the use of lower order thinking categories - Remember and Understand.

Examples:

- Identify nutrients found in common food sources using the product's nutrition label;
- Use computer dietary analysis to assess a 2-day dietary intake and categorize the results;
- Research nutrition-related information on the internet and evaluate the reliability of the information.
