Unit Overview

This unit will guide students to discover the benefits of respect, appreciation and cooperation with the people that are around them. While exploring these themes, the learners will acquire the ability to greet and introduce themselves to Spanish speakers both inside and outside the school setting.

The theme of the unit is Greeting and Farewells.

Enduring Understandings

Students will understand that:

- Sharing and being kind to others will help us have a respectful and healthy school family.
- Learning another language can help us be friendly to more people.

Essential Questions

- How I can greet others?
- How I can start and end a conversation?

Exit Skills

By the end of Unit 1

- Students will be able to say "Good morning" and "Hello" in target language.
- Students will be able to identify the correct greeting to use for the time of day.
- Students will be able to respond and utilize common courtesies such as "gracias" ("thank you") and "de nada" ("you're welcome").
