Belleville, NJ 07109

Prepared by: Ms. Diana Kucko

Dr. Richard Tomko, Ph.D., M.J., Superintendent of Schools

Ms. LucyAnn Demikoff, Director of Curriculum and Instruction K-12

Unit Overview

Exploring our personal identity is not an easy process, and it can be especially challenging for young people as many try to define who they are. In an effort to learn about themselves, students will explore several elements of narrative text, and how character interaction defines a person's makeup. Students will continue to work on citing textual evidence that reveals the many facets of character, the setting, and analyze the effect of the setting on individuals and events. The theme in this unit focuses on identity and self-exploration. This unit ends with a narrative essay (emphasis on non-fiction) and an oral presentation in response to the essential question(s).

Enduring Understanding

Enduring understandings are statements summarizing important ideas and core processes that are central to a discipline and have lasting value beyond the classroom. They synthesize what students should understand—not just know or do—as a result of studying a particular content area. Moreover, they articulate what students should “revisit” over the course of their lifetimes in relationship to the content area.

- We learn things about ourselves through narrative writing and reading characters in literature.
- We should respect all races and cultures and it impacts our lives.
- Perseverance leads to accomplishment.
- Questioning our text assists in our understanding of what we read.
- Everyone can develop the qualities needed to persevere.
- Appreciate and learn from narrative text and its elements.
- Certain universal attributes lead to success.

Essential Questions

Essential Questions are questions that lie at the heart of a subject or a curriculum and/ or questions that promotes inquiry and the discovery of a subject.

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

The suggested activities listed below can be found within the My Perspective textbook on page 3 of the teacher's edition.

Whole Class Learning:

- The Medicine Bag, by Virginia Driving Hawk Sneve
- Apache's Rite of Passage, National Geographic

Suggested activity: The Whole-Class reading and video describe some traditional rites of passage. After reading and viewing, you will write a nonfiction narrative in which you relate an experience that you or someone you know had that might be considered a rite of passage. Use Pearson Realize's writing tool for essay writing and feedback.

Small Group Learning:

- Just Be Yourself, by Stephanie Pellegrin

Suggested activity: Perform a close read of the text where students brainstorm about the events and activities that are important in our own lives.

Challenge: Students can write their own letter in which they give advice to their younger selves. Begin by thinking about an experience that was very important to them when they were younger. Consider: how they handled the experience at that time vs. how they would handle it now. Address the younger self as "you", and write a standard friendly letter.

Independent Learning:

- Quinceanera Birth Bash Preserves Tradition, Marks Passage to Womanhood by Natalie St. John

Suggested activity: Skim, predict, and use KWL to help the understanding of reading this nonfiction text independently.

They will show mastery of text when they can collaborate in small groups to complete choice task cards detailing ten high-level critical thinking categories.

*Jigsaw teaching

Anticipatory Set/Do Now:

What have you learned from teaching each other so far? Suggestions? Thoughts?

Learning Activity:

- After reading several selections of fiction text from Unit 1, your group mates and you will think critically using several categories that analyze our literature.
- You will be pre-assigned a small group after a jigsaw activity, as well as a larger group to “teach” to, as the now expert in your category.
- There are 10 categories that your small group may receive:
 - Big Idea
 - Details
 - Unanswered Questions
 - Language of the Discipline
 - Across Disciplines
 - Ethics
 - Multiple Perspectives
 - Patterns
 - Rules
 - Trends
- You and your small group must choose TWO of the eight task cards in your envelope.
- You will answer the critical questions and become an EXPERT in them and your category. After 30 minutes of time (dependent on how we are working), you will gather back with your large group.
 - As you are becoming an EXPERT, you must “teach” the rest of your group when you gather back together.
 - You have your choice of the following to “teach” your group:
 - Get a computer and make a Prezi answering your two questions
 - Use a computer to make a Google Slide

- Get a large post-it! Note, where you will make your own anchor chart
