Unit Overview

- In Unit 5, students gain a better understanding of, and appreciation for, poetry by exploring many different themes, concepts, and ideas across a variety of poems. Students will recognize rhythm scheme and form as they read poetry and apply that knowledge as they create original works. Young poets will also analyze the emotion and message behind various poems. Students will choose a poem to memorize that poem for a presentation to the class. This may be done in pairs to help decrease anxiety levels. At the end of this unit, writers will have the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to create original works of poetry and present it to the class in one of a variety of presentation styles. A booklet of at least 5 poems including: a cover page; an About the Author page, a Table of Contents; the pages of poems with illustrations ; and a final reflection page about poetry will be polished and added to the portfolio.

*Of the various forms of poetry, it is suggested that instructors include the following forms for students to study and write:

Found Poem (Found poems take existing texts and refashion them, reorder them, and present them as poems. The literary equivalent of a collage, found poetry is often made from newspaper articles, street signs, graffiti, speeches, letters, or even other poems.)

Couplets

Sonnet

Free Verse

Parallelism

Haiku

Music Lyrics

By the end of this unit, students will learn

How the structure and composition of poetry differs from other forms of literature.

The function and application of poetic devices.

Poetry relies on the use of figurative language that must be deciphered in order to comprehend the underlying ideas in a poem.

How to draw inspiration for their own poetry writing through thoughtful observation, discussion, and interaction.
