Enduring Understanding

Students will understand that:

- Cultural variations influence family structure, rites of passage, social etiquette, and communication skills.
- Communicating in at least one other language is essential to gaining knowledge of other cultures (traditions, products, and perspectives).
- Participating in multilingual communities both within and beyond the school setting leads to personal enjoyment and enrichment.
- Appreciating and understanding the variety of cultures that exist in a society enriches that society.
- Language acquisition is accelerated by repeated exposure to the spoken language as well as the perceived need to speak only the target language.
- When comparing languages, cultural values, and beliefs, all communities deserve equal respect and consideration.

Essential Questions

Students will keep considering:

- What constitutes a family in different societies?
- How do individuals contribute to the well-being of communities?
- How do the roles that families and communities assume differ in societies around the world?
- How does culture affect family dynamics?
- How are cultural perspectives (attitudes, values, and beliefs) reflected in a culture's products & social practices?
- How do I develop communicative competence?
- How is language a product of a culture?
- What strategies do I need to communicate in linguistically & culturally appropriate ways?
- Is knowledge of grammar rules essential for communication?
- What distinguishes a fluent foreigner from a native speaker?
- Why do people from different cultures sometimes say, write and do things differently from the way I do them?

Exit Skills

Students will be able to discuss and write about:

- Social Relations / Les rapports sociaux
- Childhood and Adolescence / L'enfance et l'adolescence
- Citizenship / La citoyenneté
- Customs and Ceremonies / Les coutumes et les fêtes
- Family Structures / Structures familiales
- Friendship and Love / L'amitié et l'amour
