Exit Skills

What are the skills that the students should have obtained by the end of this unit?

By the end of Unit 4 Italian Culture and Conversation students will be able to:

- Identify iconic Italian architecture;
- Identify how modern Italy society continues to change as many new cultures and ethnicities arrive

Enduring Understanding

- Interpreting spoken and written language is essential to good communication and building rapport.
- Communicative modes are different based on the level of formality.
- When comparing languages, cultural values, and beliefs, all communities deserve equal respect and consideration.
- Communicating in at least one other language in order to obtain information, express feelings and exchange opinions is important.
- Making interdisciplinary connections as one reads, writes, speaks, or listens in another language allows one to acquire knowledge, reinforce concepts and gain new perspectives.
- Comparing English with other languages is important to understanding the nature of language and their cultures.
- Appreciating and understanding the variety of cultures that exist in a society enriches that society.
- Gaining knowledge about and empathizing with other peoples and cultures leads to a more tolerant society.

- Participating in multilingual communities both within and beyond the school setting leads to personal enjoyment and enrichment.
- Communicating in at least one other language is essential to gaining knowledge of other cultures (traditions, products, and perspectives).
- Customs and traditions not only differ from one country to another, but by region also.

Essential Questions

- How will the historical and iconic structures of Italy survive?
- How does a country retain its own culture in the face of a changing population that has a different culture?
- What is Italy's role in the contemporary world?
- What problems does Italy face?
- How does life in Italy compare to life in the United States and other global societies?

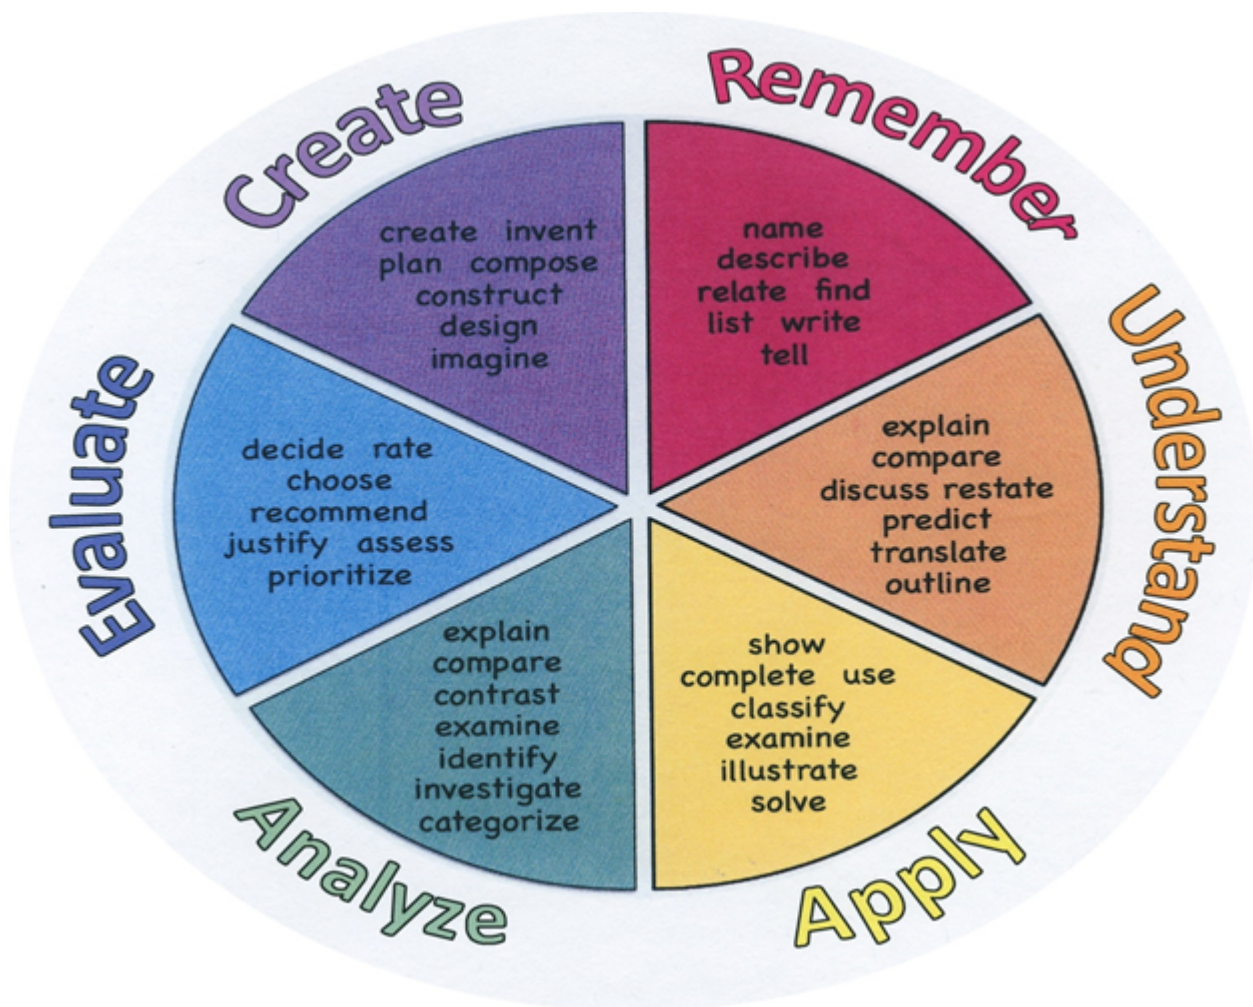

Learning Objectives

- Identify the iconic architecture:
 - The Roman Forum
 - The Colosseum
 - The Roman Wall
 - The Appian Way
 - Pompeii
 - Its cathedrals and duomos of Florence, Assisi, Naples, Milan, Rome, Pisa
- Identify the populations that have migrated to Italy;
- Compare and contrast how its newest immigrant populations are assimilating into their new surroundings.

Below are examples of action verbs associated with each level of the Revised Bloom's Taxonomy. These are useful in writing learning objectives, assignment objectives and exam questions.
