Suggested Activities & Best Practices

Unit 6, Week 1

- Clean Up Poster - Have children work in small groups. Encourage them to think of an area in their community or around their school that could use some sprucing up. Have groups determine what needs to be done and create a sign up poster. The sign up poster should describe the jobs needing to be done and then show the number of people needed for each job.
- Place children in triads. Have children create a poster advertising their bale sale. Have each child draw a baked good item on the poster. Encourage the use of technology to create their captions, labels, or sentences that will provide the necessary information for the poster. Make sure all children collaborate on this joint project.

Unit 6, Week 2

- Make a visual list with simple drawings of food, clothes, and a broom. Have children talk to a partner about how they can use one of these items to help their family. Have children explain how they can help their family with one of the items. Then guide children to say which task they like helping with the most and why: I like ____ because ____.
- Pair children. Have children work together to draw one person helping another. Guide them to label the people and what they are doing. Encourage the use of technology to create their captions, labels, or sentences. Make sure both children collaborate on the joint project.

Unit 6, Week 3

- Give partners some paper and crayons, and have them fold the paper in half. Explain that on one side of the page, they are going to draw weather that they like. On the other side, they are going to draw weather that they don't like. For example, they might draw a sun and flowers for hot weather, snow for cold. They should include people, either inside or outside, doing various things, such as playing, gardening, and so on. Have partners share their work, and explain why they like the weather they drew on one side, and why they don't like the weather they drew on the other side.
- Tell children to look outside, and ask what the weather is like today. Have them think about the things they saw people doing on the way to school today, and how it relates to the weather. For example, if it is sunny and warm today, children might report seeing people walking to destinations, or standing and talking to someone. "Today the weather is _____. People are _____ because it is _____ outside."

Unit 6, Week 4

- Have children work together to draw an activity that they like doing with family or friends. Make sure that children add details to their drawings.

- Have groups of children write sentences to explain their drawings using words they learned in the lesson. Have advanced children expand their writing and develop longer informational texts. Offer ways for all children to use technology to create their captions, labels, or sentences. Make sure all children collaborate on this joint project.

Unit 6, Week 5

- Make a visual list with simple drawings of the American flag, a president, and a turkey. Have children talk to a partner about what each one is and what holiday it is celebrated on. Have children explain what one item is and what holiday it represents. Then guide children to make comparisons. "The _____ is celebrated on many holidays, but ____ is only celebrated on ____ Day".
- Have children draw a celebration of a holiday. Guide them to label their drawing with the name of the holiday and label any symbols associated with the holiday. Invite children at the advanced level to write a paragraph about the activities associated with the holiday. Have pairs exchange writing and compare their ideas.
