Unit 4: Fact or Fiction?

Belleville Board of Education

102 Passaic Avenue

Belleville, NJ 07109

Prepared by: Ms. Rebecca Rotino

Dr. Richard Tomko, Ph.D., M.J., Superintendent of Schools

Ms. LucyAnn Demikoff, Director of Curriculum and Instruction K-12

Ms. Nicole Shanklin, Director of Elementary Education

Mr. George Droste, Director of Secondary Education

Board Approved: September 23, 2019

Unit Overview

Within Unit Four, students will discover that writers choose specific genres to inform their readers about various topics. Specifically within Unit 4, the students will begin to explore the government and the reasoning as to why government is necessary. Additionally, this unit will explore the characteristics a person would need to become a government official and explore why someone would choose this career. Following this, the unit discusses outer space and the creation of stories to help describe the unknown. Finally, this unit also explores a writer's point of view and how two writers can have contrasting views on the same topic.

The comprehension strategies will focus on Asking and Answering Questions and Making Predictions, while the comprehension skills will cover Cause and Effect, Point of View, and Theme. Students will also practice various vocabulary strategies such as Latin Roots, Idioms, Context Clues: Synonyms, Context Clues: Paragraph Clues, and Connotation/Denotation.

Additionally, students will cover both narrative and poetic forms within separate, three week writing process lessons over the course of the unit. Students will utilize expert models to model the writing process, while creating their own artifacts within each genre of writing.

Enduring Understandings

Students will understand that...

- a government is important so that order can be maintained in a community, country, and the world.
- people run for public office because they feel they have a fair and just mindset to speak for the people they govern.
- for many years, people did not understand what they saw in the night's sky so they came up with stories. Now, astronomers use instruments and scientific investigations to accurately educate people about space.
- the meaning of success can differ from writer to writer.
- because everyone has different background knowledge, writers can treat the same topic very differently.

Essential Questions

- Why do we need government?
- Why do people run for public office?
- How do you explain what you see in the sky?
- How do writers look at success in different ways?
- How do different writers treat the same topic?

Exit Skills

By the end of Unit 4: Fact or Fiction?, students should be able to...

- ask and answer questions about a text.
- create predictions based on previewing the text.
- demonstrate understanding of text structure: cause and effect.
- determine point of view.
- determine theme.
- cite relevant text evidence to support answers.
- demonstrate knowledge of taught skills and strategies of the unit.
- expand on knowledge of vocabulary and utilize various strategies to define new words.
- demonstrate understanding of idioms.
- demonstrate an understanding of synonyms.
- use key details to find the main idea.
- describe how the author supports opinions in the text.
- write narrative text.
- write sentences/complete paragraphs about the topic/text that has been read.
- identify pronouns and understand pronoun-antecedent agreement.
- correctly use frequently confused words (to, too, two; there, their, they're).
- write with few grammatical errors that are connected to the learning.
- engage in collaborative discussions regarding the overall topic presented each week.

New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSL)

LA.RL.4.1	Refer to details and examples in a text and make relevant connections when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LA.RL.4.2	Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text.
LA.RL.4.5	Explain major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text.
LA.RL.4.6	Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.

LA.RI.4.1	Refer to details and examples in a text and make relevant connections when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LA.RI.4.5	Describe the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in a text or part of a text.
LA.RI.4.7	Interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears.
LA.W.4.3.A	Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.
LA.W.4.3.B	Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
LA.W.4.3.C	Use a variety of transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events.
LA.W.4.3.D	Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.
LA.W.4.3.E	Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.
LA.SL.4.1.A	Explicitly draw on previously read text or material and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.
LA.SL.4.1.B	Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
LA.L.4.4.A	Use context (e.g., definitions, examples, or restatements in text) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
LA.L.4.4.B	Use common, grade-appropriate Greek and Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., telegraph, photograph, autograph).
LA.L.4.5.B	Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs.
LA.L.4.5.C	Demonstrate understanding of words by relating them to their opposites (antonyms) and to words with similar but not identical meanings (synonyms).

Interdisciplinary Connections

- History/Social Sciences (Constitutional Heritage): "Our Government"
- History/Social Sciences (Civic Values, Rights, and Responsibilities): "Leadership"
- Science (Earth and Space Sciences): "Wonders in the Sky"
- Science (Engineering, Technology, and Applications of Science): "Breakthroughs"

SCI.3-5-ETS1-1	Define a simple design problem reflecting a need or a want that includes specified criteria for success and constraints on materials, time, or cost.
SCI.4-ESS3-2	Generate and compare multiple solutions to reduce the impacts of natural Earth processes on humans.
SOC.6.3.4	Active Citizenship in the 21st Century: All students will acquire the skills needed to be active, informed citizens who value diversity and promote cultural understanding by working collaboratively to address the challenges that are inherent in living in an interconnected world.
SOC.6.3.4.A.1	Determine what makes a good rule or law and apply this understanding to rules and laws in your school or community (e.g., bike helmet, recycling).
SOC.6.3.4.A.2	Examine the impact of a local issue by considering the perspectives of different groups, including community members and local officials.

Learning Objectives

In Unit 4: Fact or Fiction?, students will be able to...

- compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.
- apply and correctly use relative pronouns (who, whose, whom, which, that) and relative adverbs (where, when, why).
- compare and contrast major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text.
- determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words or phrases in a text relevant to a grade 4 topic or subject area.
- integrate ideas and engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 4 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
- paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
- create and build background on clever ideas.
- produce dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
- create a variety of transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events.
- develop and use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.
- produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.
- choose punctuation for effect (distinguish sentences and sentence fragments, identify sentence types, capitalize and punctuate sentences correctly).
- justify how details and examples in a text explain what the text says explicitly when drawing inferences from the text.
- combine knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology (e.g., roots and affixes) to read accurately unfamiliar multisyllabic words in context and out of context.
- describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character's thoughts, words, or actions).
- orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.
- develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations using dialogue and description.
- predict future events using text clues and illustrations within a selection and identify events that confirm or challenge predictions.
- comprehend informational texts, including history/ social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.
- determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text.
- explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text, including what happened and why, based on specific information in the text (listen for a purpose and identify characteristics of narrative nonfiction).
- provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented.
- interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g. in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears.
- determine when to use dialogue and description to develop experience and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
- illustrate the understanding of words by relating them to their opposites (antonyms) and to words with similar but not identical meanings (synonyms).

Suggested Activities & Best Practices

Inquiry Space: Write About-Bullying

Narrative Performance Task: Each week the students will complete one level of a six-week opinion performance task in a digital environment. Via game-like interface, students are assigned a task and work independently to: 1. Plan and conduct research; 2. Synthesize information; 3. Communicate ideas in writing and presentation.

Resource Toolkit: At each level, a toolkit of resources is available to students. These point-of-use resources include a variety of animated tutorials, videos, and slide presentations that students can view (and review) to help them at each level. Tools are designed to be viewed independently, with the option to be utilized in small group instructions if needed.

Assessment Evidence - Checking for Understanding (CFU)

Each week within Wonders!, Selection Tests and Weekly Assessments are available to monitor students' understanding of the skills and strategies taught. There are also multiple points within the week where specific questions can lead to flexible grouping opportunities. At the end of the unit, the Summative Assessment will provide information on the following areas: Comprehension; Vocabulary; English Language Conventions; and Writing. Additionally, teachers may decide to conduct fluency assessments and running records to help determine the reading levels of each child which can then dictate independent book choice for the Reader Writing Workshop model.

- Wonders Assessments (Unit Tests, Fluency, etc.) (Summative)
- Wonders Weekly Assessments (Summative)
- Fictional Narrative & Poetry Writing (Summative)
- Common Benchmark #2 (Benchmark)
- DRA2 Results (Benchmark)
- Anecdotal Records (Formative)

In addition to the assessments listed above, the following assessments can be used to track progress:

Alignment to 21st Century Skills & Technology

Mastery and infusion of 21st Century Skills & Technology and their Alignment to the core content areas is essential to student learning. The core content areas include:

- English Language Arts;
- Mathematics;
- Science and Scientific Inquiry (Next Generation);

- Social Studies, including American History, World History, Geography, Government and Civics, and Economics;
- World languages;
- Technology;
- Visual and Performing Arts.

TECH.8.1.5	Educational Technology: All students will use digital tools to access, manage, evaluate, and synthesize information in order to solve problems individually and collaborate and to create and communicate knowledge.
TECH.8.1.5.A.2	Format a document using a word processing application to enhance text and include graphics, symbols and/or pictures.
TECH.8.1.5.A.3	Use a graphic organizer to organize information about problem or issue.
TECH.8.1.5.B	Creativity and Innovation: Students demonstrate creative thinking, construct knowledge and develop innovative products and process using technology.
TECH.8.1.5.C	Communication and Collaboration: Students use digital media and environments to communicate and work collaboratively, including at a distance, to support individual learning and contribute to the learning of others.
TECH.8.1.5.D	Digital Citizenship: Students understand human, cultural, and societal issues related to technology and practice legal and ethical behavior.
TECH.8.1.5.E.CS2	Locate, organize, analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and ethically use information from a variety of sources and media.
TECH.8.1.5.F.CS3	Collect and analyze data to identify solutions and/or make informed decisions.
TECH.8.2.5.A.2	Investigate and present factors that influence the development and function of a product and a system.
TECH.8.2.5.B.CS3	The role of society in the development and use of technology.
TECH.8.2.5.C	Design: The design process is a systematic approach to solving problems.

21st Century Skills/Interdisciplinary Themes

- Communication and Collaboration
- Creativity and Innovation
- Critical thinking and Problem Solving
- ICT (Information, Communications and Technology) Literacy
- Information Literacy
- Life and Career Skills
- Media Literacy

CRP.K-12.CRP1.1	Career-ready individuals understand the obligations and responsibilities of being a member of a community, and they demonstrate this understanding every day through their interactions with others. They are conscientious of the impacts of their decisions on others and the environment around them. They think about the near-term and long-term consequences of their actions and seek to act in ways that contribute to the betterment of their teams, families, community and workplace. They are reliable and consistent in going beyond the minimum expectation and in participating in activities that serve the greater good.
CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.

CRP.K-12.CRP5.1

Career-ready individuals understand the interrelated nature of their actions and regularly make decisions that positively impact and/or mitigate negative impact on other people, organization, and the environment. They are aware of and utilize new technologies, understandings, procedures, materials, and regulations affecting the nature of their work as it relates to the impact on the social condition, the environment and the profitability of the organization.

CRP.K-12.CRP6.1

Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.

CRP.K-12.CRP10.1

Career-ready individuals take personal ownership of their own education and career goals, and they regularly act on a plan to attain these goals. They understand their own career interests, preferences, goals, and requirements. They have perspective regarding the pathways available to them and the time, effort, experience and other requirements to pursue each, including a path of entrepreneurship. They recognize the value of each step in the education and experiential process, and they recognize that nearly all career paths require ongoing education and experience. They seek counselors, mentors, and other experts to assist in the planning and execution of career and personal goals.

CRP.K-12.CRP11.1

Career-ready individuals find and maximize the productive value of existing and new technology to accomplish workplace tasks and solve workplace problems. They are flexible and adaptive in acquiring new technology. They are proficient with ubiquitous technology applications. They understand the inherent risks-personal and organizational-of technology applications, and they take actions to prevent or mitigate these risks.

CRP.K-12.CRP12.1

Career-ready individuals positively contribute to every team, whether formal or informal. They apply an awareness of cultural difference to avoid barriers to productive and positive interaction. They find ways to increase the engagement and contribution of all team members. They plan and facilitate effective team meetings.

PFL.9.1.4.F.2

Explain the roles of philanthropy, volunteer service, and charitable contributions, and analyze their impact on community development and quality of living.

CAEP.9.2.4.A.1

Identify reasons why people work, different types of work, and how work can help a person achieve personal and professional goals.

CAEP.9.2.4.A.2

Identify various life roles and civic and work - related activities in the school, home, and community.

CAEP.9.2.4.A.3

Investigate both traditional and nontraditional careers and relate information to personal likes and dislikes.

21st Century Skills

- Environmental Literacy
- Financial, Economic, Business and Entrepreneurial Literacy
- Global Awareness
- Health Literacy

Differentiation

Content:Content will be differentiated through use of multilevel readers for Basic Skills students, Special Education students, Talented and Gifted students, as well as ELL students. The readers are all focused upon the same content, however the lexiles differ depending upon the abilities of the student.

Process:The process will be differentiated through supplying three tiers of questioning for basic, intermediate, and advanced learners. Additionally, students will be supplied with sentence stems and differentiated student workbooks to foster student success of the established goals.

Product:The product will be differentiated because student work will be based upon their reading levels and lexiles. Students will be given choice for projects that appeal to their various learning styles to promote confidence and success amongst the students.

Differentiations:

- Small group instruction
- Small group assignments
- Extra time to complete assignments
- Pairing oral instruction with visuals
- Repeat directions
- Use manipulatives
- Center-based instruction
- Token economy
- Study guides
- Teacher reads assessments allowed
- Scheduled breaks
- Rephrase written directions
- Multisensory approaches
- Additional time
- Preview vocabulary
- Preview content & concepts
- Story guides
- Behavior management plan
- Highlight text
- Student(s) work with assigned partner

- Visual presentation
- Assistive technology
- Auditory presentations
- Large print edition
- Dictation to scribe
- Small group setting

Hi-Prep Differentiations:

- Alternative formative and summative assessments
- Choice boards
- Games and tournaments
- Group investigations
- Guided Reading
- Independent research and projects
- Interest groups
- Learning contracts
- Leveled rubrics
- Literature circles
- Multiple intelligence options
- Multiple texts
- Personal agendas
- Project-based learning
- Problem-based learning
- Stations/centers
- Think-Tac-Toes
- Tiered activities/assignments
- Tiered products
- Varying organizers for instructions

Lo-Prep Differentiations

- Choice of books or activities
- Cubing activities
- Exploration by interest
- Flexible grouping
- Goal setting with students
- Jigsaw
- Mini workshops to re-teach or extend skills
- Open-ended activities
- Think-Pair-Share
- Reading buddies
- Varied journal prompts
- Varied supplemental materials

Special Education Learning (IEP's & 504's)

Teachers should utilize the Quick Checks to assess students' needs and select the appropriate small group instructional focus.

The following is an example within Unit 4:

Comprehension Strategy: Ask and Answer Questions T19

Comprehension Skill: Text Structure: Cause and Effect T21

Genre: Narrative Nonfiction T23

Vocabulary Strategy: Latin Roots T25

Phonics/Fluency: Inflectional Endings T27

Reteaching Pages: Approaching Levels T40-T47

- printed copy of board work/notes provided
- additional time for skill mastery
- assistive technology
- behavior management plan
- Center-Based Instruction
- check work frequently for understanding
- computer or electronic device utilizes
- extended time on tests/ quizzes
- have student repeat directions to check for understanding
- highlighted text visual presentation
- modified assignment format
- modified test content
- modified test format
- modified test length
- multiple test sessions
- multi-sensory presentation
- preferential seating
- preview of content, concepts, and vocabulary
- Provide modifications as dictated in the student's IEP/504 plan
- reduced/shortened reading assignments
- Reduced/shortened written assignments
- secure attention before giving instruction/directions
- shortened assignments
- student working with an assigned partner

- teacher initiated weekly assignment sheet
- Use open book, study guides, test prototypes

English Language Learning (ELL)

Small Group Instruction: Use the ELL small group lessons in the Wonders Teacher's Edition to provide focused instruction.

Language Development: Vocabulary preteaching and review, additional vocabulary building, and vocabulary strategy lessons

Close Reading: Interactive Question-Response routines for scaffolded text dependent questioning for reading and rereading the Shared Read and Leveled Reader

Writing: Focus on the weekly writing trait, grammar skills, and spelling words

- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning;
- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using computer word processing spell check and grammar check features
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests

At Risk

Teachers should utilize the Quick Checks to assess students' needs and select the appropriate small group instructional focus.

The following is an example within Unit 4:

Comprehension Strategy: Ask and Answer Questions T19

Comprehension Skill: Text Structure: Cause and Effect T21

Genre: Narrative Nonfiction T23

Vocabulary Strategy: Latin Roots T25

Phonics/Fluency: Inflectional Endings T27

Reteaching Pages: Approaching Levels T40-T47

- allowing students to correct errors (looking for understanding)
- teaching key aspects of a topic. Eliminate nonessential information
- allowing products (projects, timelines, demonstrations, models, drawings, dioramas, poster boards, charts, graphs, slide shows, videos, etc.) to demonstrate student's learning
- allowing students to select from given choices
- allowing the use of note cards or open-book during testing
- collaborating (general education teacher and specialist) to modify vocabulary, omit or modify items to reflect objectives for the student, eliminate sections of the test, and determine how the grade will be determined prior to giving the test.
- decreasing the amount of work presented or required
- having peers take notes or providing a copy of the teacher's notes
- marking students' correct and acceptable work, not the mistakes
- modifying tests to reflect selected objectives
- providing study guides
- reducing or omitting lengthy outside reading assignments
- reducing the number of answer choices on a multiple choice test
- tutoring by peers
- using authentic assessments with real-life problem-solving
- using true/false, matching, or fill in the blank tests in lieu of essay tests
- using videos, illustrations, pictures, and drawings to explain or clarify

Talented and Gifted Learning (T&G)

If students can read their leveled text fluently and answer comprehension questions, then work with the next level up to accelerate students' reading with more complex text. Utilizing the Green Leveled readers will expose students to higher lexile levels and textual questions that will challenge the students

- Above grade level placement option for qualified students
- Advanced problem-solving
- Allow students to work at a faster pace
- Cluster grouping
- Complete activities aligned with above grade level text using Benchmark results
- Create a blog or social media page about their unit
- Create a plan to solve an issue presented in the class or in a text
- Debate issues with research to support arguments
- Flexible skill grouping within a class or across grade level for rigor

- Higher order, critical & creative thinking skills, and discovery
- Multi-disciplinary unit and/or project
- Teacher-selected instructional strategies that are focused to provide challenge, engagement, and growth opportunities
- Utilize exploratory connections to higher-grade concepts
- Utilize project-based learning for greater depth of knowledge

Sample Lesson

Lesson Focus: Good readers can identify the narrator's point of view.

Unit of Study: Grade 4, Unit 3: That's the Spirit! Lesson #: Week 1

Connection (1 minute)

“Remember when we learned stories are told with narrators being in first-person or third-person narrative. You all did a great job in finding the pronouns in the story to help identify first or third person narrative. As you know, good readers do many things while they read.”

“Today I'm going to teach you how good readers identify the narrator's point of view to better understand what they're thinking and feeling.”

Give Students a Brief Description of Strategy and Why It's Important

Teaching (5 min)

- “Boys and girls, whenever I read a text, I know that there's a narrator or a person that tells a story. The narrator's point of view tells how the narrator feels or thinks about the characters or events. If a narrator uses pronouns such as I, we, and me, the story has a first-person narrator.”

- “Also, if the narrator uses pronouns such as he, she, or they, the story has a third-person narrator. I keep that in my mind while I’m reading so that I can focus on the narrator’s point of view and understand what they are thinking and feeling.”

Let me show you what I mean

- Teacher: Use the story from the Literature Anthology book called, “The Cricket in Times Squares.” Display page 180 (T25C).
- Teacher: Reread the first paragraph from page 180 to point out the pronouns.
- “Hmmm...What are some of the pronouns that are used? I see that the narrator uses the pronouns he and they to describe the characters. We can tell from this that this story has a third-person narrator.”
- “I can also use the details to help identify the narrator’s point of view.”
- Continue to read page 180 (T25C).
- “Hmmm...I know that the character is eavesdropping or listening in on humans which is what he enjoyed the most. I know that Tucker likes to explore the Times Square Subway Station. I also know that Tucker asks Chester who he is and introduces himself. These details tell me that Tucker is curious and social.”

Model additional examples as needed i.e. pages 182 (T25E); 185 (T25G-H); etc...

Recap Did you see what I did?

“Did you see how I used pronouns to identify that the narrator was third-person and used the details from the story to figure out the narrator’s point of view?”

Now it’s your turn to try this.....

Teacher: Instruct students to turn to page 167 in Reader’s/Writer’s Workshop, “At the Library” (T21):

Active Engagement (3 min)

Allows for guided practice

Teacher: “Read page 167 to find some pronouns and details to figure out the narrator’s point of view? Turn and talk to your partner.”

After 2 minutes, purposefully choose two readers to share the pronouns and details that they identified as the narrator being third-person and their point of view which he understands that Rick misses his old friends and wants new friends.

“Today, I just taught you how good readers identify the narrator’s point of view.”

Link (1 min)

Linking mini lesson to their independent work

“When you go off to read today, you’re going to practice identifying the narrator’s point of view in your own independent books. Now that you know this is something that good readers do, you can use this skill whenever you read.”

Independent Reading

Suggested time: Build to 30 minutes over the school year.

*Note: Add this strategy to your Unit anchor chart.

- Students are reading independently.
- Teacher is differentiating instruction by pulling students for conferencing/ small group instruction.

End of workshop - Whole Group Share

Share

Options:

- Have students share how they were able to identify the narrator's point of view by using pronouns and details from the story while reading their books independently.

- Praise behaviors that were observed during students' independent reading.

Sample talk: "Suzie, I really loved how you quickly identified the narrator's point of view while reading your story. I could tell that you were hard at work! Way to go!"

- Review previously taught strategies and skills.

Sample talk: "You all did such a great job identifying the narrator's point of view today. I want to remind all of you that good readers continue to practice all of the skills and strategies that they have learned such as...."
