Sample Lesson

Unit Name: Sculpture

NJSLS: attached below

Interdisciplinary Connection: Math, social studies

Statement of Objective: SWDAT build a sculpture by creating a three dimensional gnome with paper mache.

Anticipatory Set/Do Now: What three things do most gnomes have in common?

Learning Activity: Students will begin by preparing their water bottles for construction by weighting them. Discuss with the class why a weight inside the bottle is necessary for their structure. Demonstrate how to add the correct amount of clay/plaster/quick rock to the inside of the bottle, add water to activate, then uncap and set aside for drying. During the remaining minutes in class demonstrate how to begin building the armature for the skeleton of their gnomes.

Student Assessment/CFU's: Define, describe, explain, self-assessment.

Materials: Water bottles, quick rock, masking tape, paper, paper mache paste, paint, paint brushes, water, paper towels, batting, any additional tools or embellishments the students want to bring in for their gnomes.

21st Century Themes and Skills: Creativity and innovation, problem solving and critical thinking.

Differentiation: Visual demonstrations and aides available for visual learners; Class discussion and explanation for auditory learners; Physical creation, hands-on work, for kinesthetic learners.

Integration of Technology: Examples will be shown on my computer, or my ipad, whenever applicable.
