GRADES 2-6
WRITING RESOURCES IN WONDERS

WHAT is the resource ?	HOW do you use it?	WHY do you use it?
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Expert Model}	● Teacher can use this as their own writing to model in the teaching section in their minilesson. ● Exposure to the type of writing students will be doing.	● Students need to see a well written and completed composition that is a rubric score of a 4.
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Anchor Papers}	● Models during conferences and small group work. ● Whole class minilesson	● Gives the writer 4 different writing samples with various scores using the same rubric. ● Writers need to comprehend the expectations when applied to the scoring process. ● Use lower level scores (Score of a 1 or 2) to show how to improve the quality of writing.
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Student Draft Model}	● During immersion and mentor text. ● Can be used during whole class teaching points.	● Good writers need to see a model while writing. ● Use to show how to improve the quality of writing.
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Revision Checklist}	● Can be used to get ideas for minilessons during the rehearsal/ developing stage and/or the revision stage of the writing process. ● Conference/ small group teaching points.	● Good writers read, review, and rewrite their work to make improvements.
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Editing Checklist}	● Can be used to get ideas for minilessons during the editing stage ● Conference/ small group teaching points.	● Good writers edit their drafts so that their compositions are comprehensible. ● Editing is an essential part of the writing process.
Writer's Workspace Blackline Masters {Writing Rubric}	● Can be used for ideas for mini lessons, conferences, strategy and teaching points. ● Students can use during independent writing to self assess. ● Teacher can use to score writing.	● Provides consistency when grading compositions. ● It allows writers to evaluate their work before submitting to the teacher.

GRADES 2-6
WRITING RESOURCES IN WONDERS