Unit Overview

In this unit, students learn how to greet people, introduce themselves, explain where they are from, and state what day it is. In addition to learning the Spanish terms for these items, Hispanic cultures will also be explored.

Interpretive Listening:

- I can listen to short video or audio clips advertising a community function (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event) to identify the time, location, and purpose of the event.
- I can select events appropriate for me and my classmates based on our interests, availability, and purpose by listening to short video or audio clips advertising a community function (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event).

Interpretive Reading:

- I can read an advertisement about a community function (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event) to identify the time, location, and purpose of the event.
- I can select events appropriate for me and my classmates based on our interests, availability, and purpose by reading a short text advertising a community function (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event).

Interpersonal:

I can use digital tools and face-to-face communication to:

- a. Ask my classmates and members of the target culture simple questions related to time, location and purpose of a community event (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event).
- b. Respond to questions from my classmates and members of the target culture related to time, location and purpose of a community event (e.g. concert, film festival, art show, auction, parade, community service event).

I can use appropriate reaction words when my classmates and members of the target culture answer a question (e.g. me too, not me, that's interesting, really?, that's nice).

I can ask for clarification when I don't understand something (e.g. please repeat, I don't understand, did you say...?).

Presentational:

- I can use simple sentences to create a multimedia-rich presentation using written and oral text that includes information related to community events and community service opportunities (e.g. time, location, and purpose of the event).

Students will be able to:

- Identify and pronounce letters of the alphabet, including letter combinations
- Identify, define, and pronounce greetings and leave taking expressions
- Express where I come from
- Identify Spanish speaking countries of the world
