Transfer

- • Continue through research, experimentation, discovery, inventive thinking and artmaking, critical analysis and problem solving.
- • Critically analyze, describe and evaluate creative works of art in the real world.
- • Positively influence the quality of their lifelong learning, personal expression, and contributions to community and global citizenship.

Essential Questions

- • What are the specifications and requirements for each portfolio type?
- • What should be the focus of my art portfolio?

Essential Understandings

- • As an AP Studio Art student, you are asked to emphasize research, experimentation, discovery, inventive thinking and artmaking, critical analysis and problem solving in their work.
- • Critiques will be used on a regular basis so the students can learn to analyze their work as well as that of their peers.

- • It is unethical, constitutes plagiarism and often violates copyright law to simply copy a work of art (even in another medium) that was made by someone else and represent it as your own.
- • Section I is Selected Works (Quality) and consists of works that best represent the student's accomplishments.
- • Section II is Sustained Investigation (Concentration) and is a body of related works that demonstrate sustained and thoughtful investigation of a specific visual idea.
- • Section III is Range of Approaches (Breath) which consists of a variety of works demonstrating a range of conceptual and/or technical approaches.
- • Selecting the correct portfolio type (2-D Design, 3-D Design, or Drawing) is very important as it affects how the portfolio is scored.
- • There are scoring guidelines they need to become familiar with.
- • They will need to work outside the classroom, as well as in it, and beyond scheduled periods.
- • Whichever course they choose, they will work toward submission of a portfolio exam.

Students Will Know

- • In the spring, they will upload digital images of their work and commentary online. If they submit a Drawing or 2-D Design portfolio, they will also send in actual works.
- • That the AP program is a cooperative endeavor that helps students complete college-level courses and possibly receive appropriate credit for future use if the college they will be attending accepts that credit.
- • The AP Studio Art portfolios are designed for students who are seriously interested in the practical experience of art and are highly motivated and not for the casually interested.
- • The general guidelines.
- • The importance of completing and submitting their work on time.
- • The three different portfolio types are Drawing, 2-D Design and 3-D Design.
- • The three sections of each portfolio are Quality, Concentration and Breadth.
- • They will complete sketchbook and journal assignments.
- • To view, discuss, and critique sample portfolios on AP Central and consider the questions on collegeboard.org/thinkingaboutart as they plan their portfolio.

Students Will Be Skilled At

- • Critiques and analyzing their work and that of their peers.
- • Documenting their thinking, learning and creative processes in their journal.
- • Expressing their feelings, ideas and emotions thru the visual arts.
- • Forming and expressing differing opinions and value judgments about works of art.
- • Using a variety of mediums, styles and techniques in their art making.
- • Using observations of people, places, objects and events as sources for ideas for art making.

Evidence/Performance Tasks

- • Complete summer assignments.
- • Completion of concentration journals on time.
- • Completion of rubrics.
- • Completion of sketchbook assignments on time.
- • Creation of college level work.
- • Critique artwork.
- • Preliminary concentration and breadth work.
- • Staying on track. Creation of specific amounts of artwork to complete selected portfolio.

Learning Plan

- • Assessment is ongoing throughout the unit sequence.
- • Brainstorming for breadth work (12 images).
- • Brainstorming for concentration theme and 12 images describing that theme.
- • Choice of previous work for concentration and breadth sections of the selected portfolio.
- • Individual teacher/student conferences to decide on appropriate portfolio track and concentrations and breadth work.
- • Preview the essential questions and connect to learning throughout the unit.
- • Student organization of previous work for critique and assessment.
- • Student research of College Board web sites and other reference materials (previous student portfolios).
- • Teacher presentation of course goals, requirements, portfolio options and rationale included in student packet: 1. Scoring guidelines. 2. Rubrics to be used. 3. Homework (sketchbook assignments). 4. Use of the rubrics. 5. "Originality and integrity" and how they relate to the portfolio. 6. Photographing images going into the portfolio. 7. Basic information about the portfolio's evaluation, reading and grading. 8. College board websites.

Materials

Suggested Strategies for Modifications

- • Accommodations of students per their IEP'S and 504's will be considered.
- • Advanced students will be encouraged to produce more artwork.
- • Advanced students will be encouraged to work at a more advanced level.
- • Alternative outcome options.
- • Assessment based on individual development in the area of study.
- • Co-operative learning groups.
- • Handouts of notes, procedures, processes, diagrams, etc.
- • Images and visual aids.

- • One-to-one instruction and assistance.
- • Reading material modified to student level.
- • Study partners.
