Brief Summary of Unit

The students will have the opportunity to work in metal. They will learn about the characteristics of metal and related enameling materials. They will learn about all the various processes of enameling and will create an enameled piece using the en bosse ronde method as well as using the cloisonné process. Discussions of the historical significance of enameling in addition to studying contemporary metal artists will be used as inspiration for individual project ideas. Students will develop necessary skills and vocabulary required to create a cloisonné enameled piece. Emphasis will be placed on using skills to produce work that is more complex and mature. Basic methods for metal fabrication will be used such as cutting, piercing, filing, polishing etc.

Essential Questions/Enduring Understandings

- How does proper technique affect the outcome of the final product?
- How does the understanding of the enameling process develop one's individual sense of aesthetics?
