Evidence/Performance Tasks

Fine Arts students demonstrate differentiated proficiency according to their ability to answer the essential questions through formative and summative assessments. Evidence of progression may be demonstrated in divergent ways through the Artistic Process of Creating, Presenting/Producing, Connecting, and Responding.

Tasks will include:

- experimenting with a wide variety of drawing supplies, (rubber facial features, skull) and drawing pencils
- creating a self portrait utilizing the principles of drawing the human head
- doing a series of exercises to facilitate an understanding of the principles of drawing the human head.
- correctly and consistently utilizing the specific vocabulary associated with creating a self portrait.
- learning the proportions of the face and preparing a "blank"
- preparing a drawing surface
- comprehending and applying drawing terminology and media
- participating in small and large group discussion of use and understanding of the elements and principles of design
- participating in group and individual critique sessions

- self assessing via rubric
- answering the essential questions

Materials

The materials used in this course allow for integration of a variety of instructional, supplemental, and intervention materials that support student learners at all levels in the school and home environments. Associated web content and media sources are infused into the unit as applicable and available.
