Essential Questions/Enduring Understandings

- Key signatures help musicians understand the composition of a piece of music.
- Key signatures were derived to aid performers, informing them of the scale in which a piece of music has been composed.
- What do I hear when I listen to music?
- What purposes do key signatures serve in musical notation and performance?

Students Will Know/Students Will Be Skilled At

- How to assign a given scale its key signature.
- How to construct a circle of fifths to use as a tool for identifying and constructing key signatures.
- How to correctly position flats and sharps in the notation of a key signature.
- How to find the starting note (or tonic note) of a major scale from the given key signature.
- How to name scales from their key signatures.
- The order of sharps and flats.

Learning Plan

- Preview the essential questions and return to them throughout the course, in discussion and written assignments.
- Students memorize the order of sharps and flats, related to the circle of fifths.
- Students practice creating scales from given key signatures. Students may use the keyboard or the circle of fifths as tools.
- Students practice memorizing key signatures using and the placement of sharps and flats on the appropriate lines and spaces of the staff, using worksheets, games, practice drills, flash cards, etc.
- Teacher demonstrates the placement of key signatures on the treble and bass clef, in the patterns for both sharps and flats.
- Using the major scales they wrote in the previous unit, students determine what accidentals are in each scale.

Evidence/Performance Tasks

Performing Arts students demonstrate differentiated proficiency according to their ability to answer the essential questions through formative and summative assessments. Evidence of progression may be demonstrated in divergent ways through the Artistic Processes of Creating, Performing/ Presenting/ Producing, Connecting, and Responding.

- Students will correctly place sharps and flats in key signatures from the scales they have written.
- The student will be able to construct a circle of fifths given starting notes.
- The student will use the circle of fifths to identify and construct key signatures, and position them correctly on the staff, in both treble and bass clefs.
- When given a key signature, students will write the corresponding scale.
- When given starting note, the student will construct a scale and write the corresponding key signature.
