Content Area: World Languages
Course(s):
Time Period: Marking Period 1
Length: Full Year

BRIEF SUMMARY OF UNIT

In the grade 6 Latin program, students begin to develop the following skills in an introductory manner. Teachers use their professional judgment to sequence, spiral, and scaffold the skills appropriately for students based on level and readiness:

- Reading and Comprehension: Read and comprehend Latin poetry and prose
- Translation: Translate Latin texts into English
- Contextualization: Relate Latin texts to Roman cultural, historical and literary contexts
- Textual analysis: Analyze linguistic and literary features of Latin texts
- Argumentation: develop an argument that analyses Latin poetry and/or prose

Emphasis is placed on interpretive listening and interpretive reading with the goal of reading and understanding level appropriate classical literary texts. Content presented in this course is rooted in the following AP themes

- Literary Style and Genre
- Roman Values
- War and Empire
- Leadership
- Views of Non-Romans
- History and Memory
- Human Beings and the Gods

The depth and breadth through which the themes are presented are based on the proficiency level target for PERFORMANCE IN THE INTERPRETIVE MODE for the students at this level (Novice Low). The pacing of the unit is contingent on student acquisition of the language as related to their ability to communicate spontaneously, read, write and engage in discussion on the topic(s) presented.

A NOVICE range student: Understands words, phrases, and formulaic language that have been practiced and memorized to get meaning of the main idea from simple highly-predictable oral or written texts, with visual support or other contextual help.

The ability to communicate effectively in more than one language and the perspectives brought about by an understanding of other cultures are vital to the success of our students in a variety of careers. When taking this course, students develop their understanding of the interrelationship between language and culture leading to a purposeful appreciation of cultural diversity. Students who demonstrate proficiency in a second language in addition to English, may qualify for the New Jersey State Seal of Biliteracy, an honor that sets them apart from others and makes them marketable when pursuing a career and when engaging with home and global communities.

Revision Date: June 2021

For students and teachers of classical languages, the Interpretive Reading mode will be the main focus of their language study. Students will make steady progress along the continuum in Interpretive Reading as their skills and knowledge increase.

Practices that promote (interpretive communication) LISTENING AND READING:

- To reinforce literacy skills, students receive reinforcement in the mechanics of decoding, reading for meaning and using context clues as their teacher leads them in reading and understanding various texts in the target language independently and/or as a class.
- Short stories, news articles, embedded readings, excerpts from novels, basal text, rooted in high frequency vocabulary and expressions that will help students to continue to develop literacy skills.

EVIDENCE / PERFORMANCE TASKS

When taking a World Language, students demonstrate differentiated proficiency according to their ability to answer the essential questions through formative and summative assessments. Evidence of progression in the communicative modes (Interpretive, Presentational and Interpersonal) demonstrates the development of communicative proficiency over time. The performance tasks below are implemented as benchmark assessments and, based on individual student readiness and performance, can be implemented as formative and/or summative assessments. Student proficiency allows for additional or alternative assessment based on demonstration or absence of skill. The following proficiency targets guide teachers and students in working to approach, meet and even exceed proficiency levels by the end of the course.

Proficiency Targets: (based on New Jersey Student Learning Standards – World Languages) -- Grades 1-2, Grades 6 Level 1: .NL

Interpretive Assessments are designed to measure STUDENT COMPREHENSION within LISTENING AND READING:

Students will interpret what they hear and read at their own rate, with the goal of personal improvement as students advance through ACTFL PROFICIENCY levels

Grade reporting for World Language classes reflects each individual student's ability to demonstrate proficiency in the following areas: Interpretive Listening/Reading, Interpersonal speaking, Presentational Writing/Speaking, Participation and Performance. The weight of each communicative mode is based on the number of years the student has studied the language with increased accountability for demonstration of development in the interpretive mode at the novice level and a systematic approach to accountability in all modes as the student progresses into the more advanced levels of instruction.
