Unit 1 Reading: Close Reading of Fiction: Character and Theme

Content Area: English Language Arts
Course(s):
Time Period: Trimester 1
Length: 5-6 Weeks
Status: Published

Brief Summary of Unit

During this unit students will read widely and deeply from among a broad range of high-quality, increasingly challenging literature. Through extensive reading of stories, students will gain literary knowledge as well as familiarity with various text structures and elements. Students will also acquire the habits of reading independently and closely, which are essential to their future success. Students will read with comprehension to summarize--or retell with specific details and examples from the text--and to infer and draw conclusions with specific evidence from the text.

This unit is designed to be part of a developmental progression across grade levels and make interdisciplinary connections across content areas including physical and social sciences, technology, career readiness, cultural awareness, and global citizenship. During this course, students are provided with opportunities to develop skills that pertain to a variety of careers.

Revision Date: June 2026

Pacing Guide

Please refer to the annual Language Arts Reading Workshop and Word Study pacing guides for grade 4 in the curriculum folder in the Grades K-5 folder; sample K-5 Literacy schedules (across a week) are accessible in the instructional materials section as well.

Instructional Reading Level Benchmark: P

Trimester	1 needs support	2 approaching standards	3 meets standards	4 exceeds standards
1st	• Student is reading at an instructional level O or below.	• Student is reading at an instructional level P	• Student is reading at an instructional level Q. (independent P)	• Student is reading at an instructional level R or above.

Small group strategy work/Conferring can provide instruction around specific Level P language and literary features:

- Specific descriptions of setting provide important information for understanding plot
- Settings distant in time and space from students' experiences
- Multi-syllable proper nouns that are difficult to decode
- Many complex multi-syllable words that are challenging to take apart

For students reading below or above grade level expectations, please reference The Fountas and Pinnell Literacy Continuum: A Tool for Assessment, Planning and Teaching to target skills for additional reading levels. Additionally, see the Cranford Public School Grades K-5 Google Folder for instructional materials to identify teaching points and design strategy lessons for those above or below grade level reading.

Standards

The identified standards reflect a developmental progression across grades/ levels and make interdisciplinary connections across content areas including social sciences, technology, career readiness, cultural awareness and global citizenship.

These mandates may be hit through the selection of choice literature:

Amistad Commission

This unit also reflects the goals of the Department of Education and the Amistad Commission including the infusion of the history of Africans and African-Americans into the curriculum in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history regarding the importance of African-Americans to the growth and development of American society in a global context.

Asian American and Pacific Islander History Law

This unit includes instructional materials that highlight the history and contributions of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in accordance with the New Jersey Student Learning Standards in Social Studies.

New Jersey Diversity and Inclusion Law

In accordance with New Jersey's Chapter 32 Diversity and Inclusion Law, this unit includes instructional materials that highlight and promote diversity, including:

economic diversity, equity, inclusion, tolerance, and belonging in connection with race and ethnicity, disabilities, and religious tolerance.

The technology and career readiness standards that follow are relevant to this course in addition to the associated content-based standards listed:

Language Arts Content Area Standards:

Language Domain (L)
L.RF.4.4.a. Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
L.RF.4.4.b. Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
L.RF.4.4.c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.
Reading Domain (R)
RL.CI.4.2. Summarize a literary text and interpret the author's theme citing key details from the text.
RI.CI.4.2. Summarize an informational text and interpret the author's purpose or main idea citing key details from the text.
RL.IT.4.3. Describe the impact of individuals and events throughout the course of a text, using an in-depth analysis of the character, setting, or event that draws on textual evidence.
RL.PP.4.5. Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.
Speaking and Listening Domain (SL)
SL.PE.4.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 4 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

1. Explicitly draw on previously read text or material and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.
2. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
3. Pose and respond to specific questions to clarify or follow up on information, and make comments that contribute to the discussion and link to the remarks of others.
4. Review the key ideas expressed and explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.

Collaboration with individuals with diverse perspectives can result in new ways of thinking and/or innovative solutions.

P.4	Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
P.5	Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9.4.5.CI.3	Participate in a brainstorming session with individuals with diverse perspectives to expand one's thinking about a topic of curiosity (e.g., 8.2.5.ED.2, 1.5.5.CR1a).
P.8	Use technology to enhance productivity increase collaboration and communicate effectively.
P.9	Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.
9.4.5.CT.4	Apply critical thinking and problem-solving strategies to different types of problems such as personal, academic, community and global (e.g., 6.1.5.CivicsCM.3).
	Culture and geography can shape an individual's experiences and perspectives.
9.4.5.GCA.1	Analyze how culture shapes individual and community perspectives and points of view (e.g., 1.1.5.C2a, RL.5.9, 6.1.5.HistoryCC.8).
9.4.5.TL.5	Collaborate digitally to produce an artifact (e.g., 1.2.5CR1d).

Performing Arts Standards

1.4.5.Cr1: (a). Create roles, imagined worlds, and improvised stories in a drama/theatre work articulating the physical qualities of characters, visual details of imagined worlds, and given circumstances of improvised stories in a drama/theatre work. (b). Imagine, articulate, and design ideas for costumes, props, and sets that support the story, given circumstances, and characters in a drama/theatre work. (c). Imagine how a character's inner thoughts impact their actions and collaborate to determine how characters might move and speak to support the story and given circumstances in drama/theatre work.

1.4.5.Pr5: (a). Describe and apply dramatic elements of dialogue, action, character emotion, and theme in the performance and/or creation of a drama/theatre work. (b). Physically and intellectually investigate how movement and vocal choices are incorporated and make meaning in drama/theatre work.

1.4.5.Re8: (a). Develop and implement a plan to evaluate drama/theatre work. (b). Analyze technical elements from multiple drama/theatre works and assess how the technical elements may support or represent the themes or central ideas of drama/theatre works. (c). Evaluate and analyze how a character's choices and character's circumstances impact an audience's perspective in a drama/theatre work.

1.4.5.Re9: (a). Compare and contrast multiple personal experiences when participating in or observing a drama/theatre work. and justify responses to drama/theatre work based on personal experience. (b). Explain responses to characters based on cultural perspectives when participating in or observing drama/theatre work. (c). Identify and discuss physiological changes connected to emotions on posture, gesture, breathing, and vocal intonation in drama/theatre work.

Essential Questions

- How can we more deeply understand the characters in our fiction books and their complexities?
- How can we learn alongside our characters as they learn lessons, so that our story's themes help us to see and treat one another with kindness?

Students Will Know/ Students will be Skilled At

By the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- Read fiction deeply, paying attention to authors' choices
- Step in the shoes of characters and learn from them
- Grow text-based theories about characters
- Analyze texts closely to identify central theme and support using evidence from the text
- Write about reading in their reader's notebooks

Evidence/Performance Tasks

Students demonstrate differentiated proficiency through both formative and summative assessments in the classroom. Based on individual student readiness and performance, assessments can be implemented as formative and/or summative.

Developmental progression across years in both reading and writing is evidenced by multiple benchmark assessment screeners, administered three times per year. Follow up diagnostic assessments are used to target skill remediation. Student proficiency allows for additional or alternative assessment based on demonstration or absence of skill.

The performance tasks listed below are examples of the types of assessments teachers may use in the classroom and the data collected by the district to track student progress.

Formative Assessments:

- Formative Assessments for this specific unit are linked on the detailed curriculum map in the learning plan.
- Responses to Essential Questions
- One-to-one reading conferences and accompanying conferring notes
- Peer conferences
- Turn and talks
- Read Aloud Reading responses, written and oral
- Exit tickets or do nows
- Engagement Observations
- Accountable Talk
- Reading Logs
- Post-it Notes/Board
- Monitor Stamina, Volume, and Fluency through rubrics
- Read increasingly complex text by monitoring student self-selection of leveled text
- Stop and Jot
- Small Group Strategy Reading group work
- Reading Responses on Post-its and in Notebooks
- Answer assigned journal questions
- Knowledge of domain specific vocabulary
- Envision and prediction post-it notes
- Student is able to make predictions based on the actions of characters: post-its, retell, partner conversations. using grade-level text: Level P *
- Retell: Retell the nonfiction text using main idea and supporting details/summaries using grade-level text: Level P *
- Summarize: Summarize story by determining important events in relation to character and eliminating inconsequential details (novels, chapters, test prep) using grade-level text: Level P *
- Retell/Summarize using grade-level text: Level P*
- Inferencing post-its using grade-level text: Level P*
- Student Writing using grade-level text: Level P

Summative Assessments, including Alternative Assessments:

- Summative Assessments for this specific unit are linked on the detailed curriculum map in the learning plan.
- Assessments created that align with the report card using grade-level text: Level P
- Reading Notebooks using grade-level text: Level P
- Fountas and Pinnell Benchmark Reading Assessment, recorded three times per year
- Running Records
- Teachers College Reading and Writing Project: Reading learning progressions
- Teachers College Reading and Writing Project: rubrics with student samples
- Standards-based reporting system and report card
- Word Study Assessments
- Performance- and project-based learning
- Personalized, student-designed assessments

Benchmark Asessments:

- Complete pre- and post-assessments for this specific unit linked on the detailed curriculum map in the learning plan.
- Fountas and Pinnell Benchmark Reading Assessment, recorded three times per year
- Complete Comprehension, Independent Reading Assessment, fiction, Jennifer Serravallo, Heinemann
- Screener: Dynamic Indicator of Basic Literacy Skills (DIBELS), recorded three times per year
- iReady Screener and Diagnostic Assessment, recorded three times per year
- Diagnostic Assessments including Phonological Assessment Profile by Linguisystems (PAPL), Heggerty, Quick Phonics Screener (QPS), UFLI (University of Florida Literacy Institute), and Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (LETRS) are sometimes administered, as needed.

Learning Plan

Upper elementary reading instruction for the Cranford Public Schools embraces a centrist approach, employing both balanced and structured literacy practices to both comprehend, analyze, and decode texts.

Balanced Literacy

To teach comprehension and analysis, reading instruction is literature and informational text-based and follows a balanced literacy approach through a number of strategies and techniques in Reading Workshop These include interactive read-alouds/alongs, mini lessons, independent reading, small group strategy instruction or guided reading, one-to-one conferencing, and book club discussions. Students will select from authentic literature at their independent reading levels from a rich classroom library. Teachers will focus on the needed skills and behaviors identified on the F&P Continuum at each student's instructional reading level. Grade level indicators are outlined above. Individual conferences with each student will address specific needs of the reader.

Teachers should follow the mini-lesson format:

- Teaching point(s) for each lesson
- Connection: Connects new learning to previous learning/lessons
- Teach/Modeling: Uses ‘think alouds’ when modeling what you expect students to do
- Guided Practice/Active Engagement: Guides students through practice of the teaching point
- Link to Independent Practice: Helps writers understand the purpose for the writing they are about to do and the skills/craft they will be practicing/applying independently as good writers
- Independent Reading/Student Conferences: Provides time for students to do independent reading while teacher confers with individual students, works with small groups, or reading clubs*.
- Closure/Sharing: Pull students back together and recognize the work they have done relating to the teaching point. (See end of section for closure ideas.)

For teaching purposes, see attached template for structure of a Reading Workshop lesson. (Change the red font to match your teaching point. Clickhere.)

For students reading below or above grade level expectations, please reference The Fountas and Pinnell Literacy Continuum: A Tool for Assessment, Planning and Teaching to target skills for additional reading levels.

Structured Literacy

To teach decoding, reading instruction follows a structured literacy approach through an number of multi sensory strategies and research-based techniques. Daily word work emphasizing prefixes, suffixes, and root words enhancing vocabulary word power is embedded within the reading block. Teachers use a multisensory approach to teach morphology. Advanced phonics lessons are embedded in this word work as well. For Word Study, please refer to the Cranford Scope and Sequence in the K-5 folder and linked under materials.

Decodable and controlled texts are used as needed and primary work study lessons may be referenced. Additionally, see the Cranford Public School Grades K-5 Google Folder for instructional materials to identify teaching points and design strategy lessons for those above or below grade level reading. Individual conferences with each student will address specific needs of the reader.

Teachers may personalize instruction during this unit and address the distinct learning needs, interests, aspirations, or cultural backgrounds of individual students.

Getting Ready

Before beginning this unit:

- Assign students into roughly matched partnerships and provide each partnership with a picture book (suggested: The Proudest Blue, Carmela Full of Wishes, The Other Side, Each Kindness, Fly Away Home)
- Prepare chapter books for Bends 2 and 3
- Plan for reader's notebooks
- Preview read-aloud texts
- Set up your vocabulary word wall
- Prepare anchor charts

- Copy additional texts and charts for students

Learning Plan: Detailed Curriculum Map

Teaching Points and lessons are located in the K-5 folder under Grade 4 Curriculum for Language Arts. These curriculum unit guides include not only aligned teaching points to standards, but also specific lessons and appropriate resources. Guidelines for preparing to teach the unit as well as goals for the end of the unit are outlined. Academic vocabulary and prerequisite skills are identified. Essential questions and possible assessments are detailed as well.

Materials

In addition to the materials below, the link that connects to district-approved books and resources utilized in this course can be found here: Core Book List. Teachers must refer to this list while selecting whole-class or small-group leveled resources.

The materials used in this course integrate (varied and leveled) instructional, enrichment, and intervention materials that support student learners at all levels in the school and home environments. Associated web content and media sources are infused into the unit as applicable and available.

Please see the Cranford Public School Grades K-5 Google Folder for instructional materials to identify teaching points and design strategy lessons for those above or below grade level reading. The sections/bends below provide detailed teaching points and lesson ideas for on-level reading.

Instructional Materials

The core materials for this unit include the Units of Study in Reading for grade 4, The Reading and Writing Project at Mossflower, 2026.

Materials used in all classrooms include the following: Fountas and Pinnell Benchmark Reading Assessment System, System 2; Fountas and Pinnell Classroom System, Guided Reading and Interactive Readaloud; Fountas and Pinnell Classroom System, Mini Lessons; Fountas and Pinnell Classroom System, Read aloud; Jennifer Serravallo Complete Comprehension; Intervention materials include, but are not limited to, Leveled Literacy Intervention kits, UFLI, FCRR, and Visualizing and Verbalizing.

The instructional materials which correspond directly with this unit are linked in the detailed curriculum map found under the Learning Plan and housed in the Grades K-5 folder under grade 4.

Word Study:

Follow this link to see Word Study Scope and Sequence using multisensory approach to word work: Fourth Grade Word Work. This approach was recognized and audited by both the NJDOE and Rutgers University through New Jersey Tiered System of Supports-Early Reading (NJTSS-ER) and Data-Driven Instructional Coaching Model (DDICM) grants.

Possible Whole Class Read

- Because of Winn Dixie by Kate DiCamillo

Potential Read Aloud Texts

- Stone Fox by John Reynolds Gardiner
- Clementine
- Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing
- Fourth Grade Rats
- Thank you Mr. Falker by Patricia Polacco
- The Bee Tree by Patricia Polacco
- The Junkyard Wonders by Patricia Polacco
- Mr. Lincoln's Way by Patricia Polacco
- Something About Hensley's by Patricia Polacco
- Aunt Chip and the Great Triple Creek Dam Affair by Patricia Polacco
- Those Shoes by Maribeth Boelts
- Dear Mr. Henshaw by Beverly Cleary
- Shiloh by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor
- Frindle by Andrew Clements

Possible Teaching Charts and Resources, See:

- Reading Workshop Looks Like/Sounds Like (Watch a video and create a chart as a reminder to the students)
- Partnership Expectations (There are several examples out there, it is up to your discretion)
- Envisioning
- Character Traits: Create a chart showing how a character needs to show several examples of a trait before calling the, that trait. Students can have a character trait list in their reading notebooks.
- Theories about Character Chart
- Character's Shoes
- Predictions

- Revisions We Have about Our Characters
- Secondary Characters Use class read aloud to show the secondary characters and how they help the main character.
- Lessons Learned by Characters: Can start this chart with read aloud and have students add to it as they read their own books.

Teacher Resources

- Heinemann Online Flight Resources
- Fountas and Pinnell Benchmark Assessment Kit
- Word Study Scope and Sequence using multisensory approach to word work
- Cranford Public School Grades K-5 Google Folder for instructional materials
- The Continuum of Literacy Learning: A Guide to Teaching by Heinemann
- Reading Fiction: Notice and Note: Stances, Signposts, and Strategies by Kylene Beers and Robert E. Probst (use articles in this book to guide instruction)
- Solutions for Reading Comprehension: Strategic Intervention for Striving Learners by Linda Hoyt,Kelly Davis, Jane Olsen, and Kelly Boswell
- The Reading Strategies Book by Jennifer Serravallo
- Energize Research Reading and Writing by Christopher Lehman
- Conferring with Readers; Supporting Each Student's Growth and Independence by Jennifer Serravallo and Gravity Goldberg
- Teaching Reading in Small Groups by Jennifer Serravallo
- Falling in Love with Close Reading: Lessons for Analyzing Texts-and Life by Christopher Lehman & Kate Roberts
- The Literacy Teacher's Playbook, 3-5, Jennifer Serravallo

- Independent Reading Assessment, Jennifer Serravallo, Fiction and Non Fiction, Scholastic.

Suggested Strategies for Modifications and Accommodations

Content specific accommodations and modifications as well as Career Ready Practices are listed here for all students, including: Special Education, English Language Learners, At Risk of School Failure, Gifted and Talented, Students with 504 plans.

For possible modifications to content during reading workshop, please . . .

- Refer to the Pathways to Intervention document in the K-5 folder for specific appropriate interventions.

- Consult with Cranford Problem Solving Team (CPST), as needed.

- Adhere to all modifications and accommodations as prescribed in IEP and 504 plans.

The structure of reading workshop is designed to differentiate and address specific goals and learning for each reader:

- The unit includes presentation of material through multiple modalities such as visual, auditory, and kinesthetic to address the unique learning styles of all students.
- The teacher will assign, assess and modify if necessary to address the specific needs of the learner.
- Students will select from authentic literature at their independent and instructional reading levels.
- Individual conferences with each student will address specific needs of the reader.

The teacher should use the benchmark assessments to determine strategy groups to build upon weak or enhance skills. Possible groups: recall/monitoring for meaning, accumulating the text, inferences, citing text evidence, synthesizing, interpretation/analyzing author's craft, using details from the text to predict/infer/retell, writing about reading, summarizing, and using meaning and structure to improve fluency.

Possible accommodations during reading workshop include, but are not limited to:

- Use visual presentations of all materials to include organizers, charts, word walls.
- Have a designated reader for difficult content
- Work in partnerships
- Give responses in a form (verbal or written) that is easier for the student
- Take additional time to compete a task or project
- Take frequent breaks
- Use an alarm to help with time management
- Mark text with a highlighter
- Receive help coordinating assignments
- Answering fewer questions or completing shorter tasks
- Create alternate assignments or homework
- Provide a distinct steps in a process; eliminate unnecessary steps, as needed.
- Manage executive function by scaffolding process and amending deadlines
- Use digital ebooks, technology, audio and video version of printed text
- Differentiate roles in discussion groups
- Access speech to text function on computer

Individual conferences with each student will address specific needs of the reader.

Framework for Alternative Setting (LEAP Program at Lincoln School)

In our K–5 alternative school setting, each class consists of students who require a highly personalized approach to reading instruction. The district's core Reading Units of Study will continue to serve as the primary reading curriculum framework; however, lessons will be further adapted to ensure accessibility and engagement for all learners. Teachers will use a combination of pacing adjustments, flexible timing, and individualized goal setting to meet students at their current skill levels. Instruction will be delivered through a blend of whole-group, small-group, and one-on-one settings, with intentional scaffolds in place to build confidence and reduce frustration.

To support targeted skill development, teachers will integrate intervention programs such as Visualizing and Verbalizing and Leveled Literacy Intervention (LLI) for comprehension, and UFLI and the Sonday System for phonics and morphology. The New Jersey Tiered System of Supports (NJTSS) will be used to guide data-driven decision-making, ensuring that students receive tiered interventions based on ongoing progress monitoring. Modifications may include breaking lessons into smaller, manageable segments; providing alternative activities that align with learning objectives but reflect student interests; using multi-sensory strategies; and allowing for extended time and flexible scheduling. In addition, teachers will incorporate regular movement breaks, personalized reading materials, and opportunities for student choice to maintain engagement and support emotional regulation. This approach ensures that each student receives a structured yet responsive reading experience that addresses both academic and social-emotional needs.
