This unit introduces the student to the various ways to look at and analyze dance in its many forms. Students will learn the basic language of dance (time, space and energy) and how to properly discuss what they are performing or seeing. Aspects of the historical, cultural and social significance of dance are explored.

Revised June 2024

Explore a variety of stimuli (e.g., music, sound, literary forms, notation, natural phenomena, experiences, current news, social events) for sourcing movement to develop an improvisational or choreographed dance study. Analyze the process and the relationship between the stimuli and the movement. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr1b Analyze the elements of dance to expand personal movement vocabulary and ascertain new movement possibilities through the creation of choreographic works. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr2 Organizing and developing ideas. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr2a Manipulate a variety of choreographic devices and dance structures to collaboratively develop a dance study with a clear artistic intent. Use dance terminology to explain how the dance structures clarify the artistic intent. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr2b Choose a theme to develop a dance and create corresponding movements to communicate the theme. Develop a dance study by selecting a specific movement vocabulary to communicate a main idea. Discuss how the dance communicates non-verbally. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr3a Revise a movement study based on self-reflection and feedback of others to improve the quality of a planned movement sequence. Articulate movement choices and revisions. Analyze and evaluate the impact of choices made in the revision process. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Cr3b Compare recognized notation systems to document a section of a dance using writing, symbols, or media technologies (e.g., graphic symbols and figures, path mapping, numerical systems, letter and word notations). DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Pr4a Develop partner and ensemble skills that enable contrasting level changes while maintaining a sense of spatial design and relationship. Use space intentionally during phrases and through transitions between phrases. DA.9-12.1.1.12prof.Pr4b Use syncopation and accented movements related to different tempi. Suggested Strategies for Modification

Represent information in multiple formats and media.

Provide multiple pathways for students' actions and expressions.

Provide multiple ways to engage students' interests and motivation

Each student will be on their own individualized path learning to analyze dance. Some assignments will be modified based on ability and grade level (this class is 9-12). Teacher will provide an outline to help students who are struggling.

Injured students are expected to fully participate in this unit using written and verbal feedback.
