Brief Summary of Unit

In this unit, students will discover theater through play, acting out favorite stories and learning basic vocabulary from theater

Revised: June 2023

Essential Questions

- What is an actor?
- What terms are associated with theater?
- How is acting out a story different than hearing it read aloud?

Enduring Understandings

- An actor is a person who pretends to be someone else while telling a story
- Some terms associated with theater are stage, prop, costume, set, and script
- Theater can make a story more meaningful and impactful to an audience than only hearing the story read aloud

Students Will Know/ Students Will be Skilled At

Students will know:

- The definition of terms such as stage, play, line, costume, set, and prop
- Differences between read aloud and theater
- Similarities between read aloud and theater

Students will be able to:

- Utilize vocabulary accurately
- Act out a role in a story
- Talk about performances after they occur

Learning Plan

- Discuss essential questions
- Establish vocabulary (stage, actor, costume, set, prop etc.)
- Read aloud an age-appropriate ELA story
- As a class, adapt the story to a live performance
- Perform this skit with students sharing parts
- Discuss the performance and compare it to the experience of having the story read aloud

Evidence/ Performance Tasks

Fine and Performing Arts students demonstrate differentiated proficiency according to their ability to answer the essential questions through formative and summative assessments. Evidence of progression may be demonstrated in divergent ways through the Artistic Processes of Creating, Performing/ Presenting/ Producing, Connecting, and Responding.

- Discussion of essential questions
