Brief Summary of Unit

In this unit, students will study design elements and create basic theatrical designs.

Revision Date: June 2023

Essential Questions

- What are the elements of theatrical design?
- How do designers approach their craft?
- How do designers fit into a production team?

Essential Understandings

- There are many realms of theatrical design such as scenic, lighting, costume, sound, and projections
- The design process begins with rough sketches and concept drawings and culminates in the creation of the actual items to be used
- Designers are typically hired by and work for the director, using their skills to create a joint vision for a production

Students Will Know

- The different elements of theatrical design that exist
- Basic terminology as it applies to design generally and elements specifically
- How to collaborate with others to create a shared vision

Students Will Be Skilled At

- List and identify elements of theatrical design
- Critique design and production elements as they relate to the goal of a script
- Collaborate with classmates to create unique designs

Learning Plan

- Discuss essential questions
- Discuss elements of design
- Experience examples of design in media such as film, television, and proshots
- Bring in examples of design the students find interesting or simply like
- Discuss the design process and the production team
- Discuss different theatrical elements and their specific skills and trades
- Assign design aesthetics to the students for them to bring in examples of
- Have students write aesthetics on slips of paper and then assign these to groups to apply to Romeo and Juliet
- Group presentation of their design concepts for Romeo and Juliet

Evidence/ Performing Tasks

Fine and Performing Arts students demonstrate differentiated proficiency according to their ability to answer the essential questions through formative and summative assessments. Evidence of progression may be demonstrated in divergent ways through the Artistic Processes of Creating, Performing/ Presenting/ Producing, Connecting, and Responding.

- Discussion of essential questions
- Observation of understanding through discussion and process
- Discussion of content brought in
- Presentation of designs the students find interesting
- Presentation of aesthetics the students have researched
- Collaborative process among the groups
- Presentation of design concepts
- Self-assessment
- Student explanation of thought process

Materials

The materials used in this course allow for integration of a variety of instructional, supplemental, and intervention materials that support student learners at all levels in the school and home environments. Associated web content and media sources are infused into the unit as applicable and available

- Paper
- Pens/pencils/graphite
- Content from film, television, proshots (SWANK, DigitalTheater+)

Suggested Strategies for Modifications
