Brief Summary of Unit

“WIDA uses the term ‘multilingual learners’ to describe all students who come in contact with and/or interact in languages in addition to English on a regular basis.” (excerpt from WIDA English Language Development Standards Framework, 2020 Edition Kindergarten - Grade 12). In the Cranford Schools, our children and youth who are, or have been, consistently exposed to multiple languages are referred to as multilingual learners. Our multilingual learners who demonstrate eligibility for English as a Second Language (ESL) services receive our ESL curriculum for the equivalent of one class period (30 minutes daily: grades K-5, 40 minutes daily: grades 6-8, 55 minutes within a 4-day rotation: grades 9-12).

When taking this course, students develop their ability to interpret and express the English language in a manner that promotes effective English communication. Through opportunities to make comparisons between their first language and the English language, students are supported in developing linguistically. Students who demonstrate proficiency in their native language / another language in addition to English, may qualify for the New Jersey State Seal of Biliteracy, an honor that sets them apart from others and makes them marketable when pursuing a career and when engaging with home and global communities.

The curriculum is designed to reflect language development at designated grade-level clusters that correspond to those used with WIDA ACCESS for ELLs (K, 1, 2-3, 4-5, 6-8, 9-12). Students are supported in acquiring social and instructional language with a concentration on English Language Arts (most specifically, in reading comprehension) to promote acquisition of the language for mathematics, science, social studies and language arts. The curriculum is structured into one unit so that teachers have flexibility in incorporating texts, materials and varied resources to promote authentic opportunities for expressive and interpretive communication.

CRP.K-12.CRP4: Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.

8.1 Educational Technology: All students will use digital tools to access, manage, evaluate, and synthesize information in order to solve problems individually and collaborate and to create and communicate knowledge

Essential Questions

What strategies can help me to understand what I am reading?

What strategies can help me to understand when I am listening?

How does my culture compare with American culture?

What is my current proficiency level in expressive communication and how can I develop the skills to “level up”?

What is my current proficiency level in interpretive communication and how can I develop the skills to “level up”?

What strategies help me to understand what I hear, read or view?

How can I successfully exchange information and ideas in conversations?

How can I present information to narrate about my life, experiences and events?

How can I present information to give a preference, opinion or persuasive argument?

How can I present information to inform, describe, or explain?

Evidence / Performance Tasks

Multilingual learners who are eligible for ESL services demonstrate differentiated communicative English language proficiency throughout the year.. Evidence of progression in interpretive and expressive language demonstrates the development of communicative proficiency over time.

The performance tasks below are listed as options for the ESL teacher to implement (based on individual student readiness and performance) either as in-class activities, benchmark assessments and, based on individual student readiness and performance, as formative and/or summative assessments. Present levels of English proficiency will determine the need for additional or alternative assessment based on demonstration or absence of skill.

Gr 6-8:

The Key Language Uses—Narrate, Inform, Explain, and Argue—are present across all grade levels and disciplines. Below are examples of the ways students may engage in each Key Language Use throughout grades 6,7 and 8 within our ESL program as related to student ability to interpret and express the English language.

Narrate: Describe people, objects, and scenes using imagery, metaphors, and other stylistic devices

Narrate: Manipulate pace to bring attention to key points in the narrative

Narrate: Underscore the significance of events

Narrate: Create tension and suspense

Narrate: Interpret and use historical narratives as primary source evidence in constructing arguments Inform: Manage information about entities according to their composition, taxonomies, and classifications

Inform: Identify and describe various relationships among ideas and information

Inform: Interpret multiple sources of information to develop knowledge before reporting on topics Inform: Construct research reports that require multiple sources of factual information

Explain: Identify, analyze, and give account for causal, consequential, or systems relationships

Identify: Apply scientific reasoning to show how or why something works

Identify: Construct explanations using models or representations

Identify: Use evidence in the construction of scientific explanations

Argue: Interpret multiple sources of information to develop claims and counterclaims

Argue: Construct claims and offer them for debate

Argue: Respond to counterclaims

Argue: Contextualize and evaluate primary and secondary sources

Argue: Analyze literary techniques, such as the development of theme and characterization in works of fiction

Students are guided regularly to the grade level descriptors for expressive and interpretive communication to understand their present levels of proficiency.

Student progress is assessed according to the type of communication required for the task (expressive or interpretive) and student level as related to the descriptors for each level of proficiency.
