

Reading: Film Study

Content Area: English Language Arts
Course(s):
Time Period: Marking Period 1
Length: 20 Weeks
Status: Published

Brief Summary of Unit

In this unit, students conduct independent study in exemplar works in both long-form and short-form filmmaking. This independent study will be student-directed and will focus on the importance of cinematography in film, connecting it to plot, characterization, and theme in story structure. As students will conduct this work in concurrence with their production requirements, student study will focus on films that can directly guide their own production goals at the time. To demonstrate understanding and transfer knowledge, students will conduct short and long-form writing exercises.

Additionally, students will be furthering their study of scriptwriting and storyboarding by reading scripts from award-winning films. Students will analyze structure, dialogue, scene descriptions, pacing, and other elements to identify best practices. These elements will be evaluated through short written analysis and student scriptwriting in the production (writing) unit of the course.

The summative evaluation will be a student-designed portfolio consisting of independent film and script study materials.

This unit is designed to be part of a developmental progression across grade levels and make interdisciplinary connections across content areas including physical and social sciences, technology, career readiness, cultural awareness, and global citizenship.

During this course, students are provided with opportunities to develop skills that pertain to a variety of careers. Students may continue to make informed choices and pursue electives that further their study and contribute toward the formation of career interests.

Revision: June 2024

Standards

This unit challenges students to locate, evaluate, and use information effectively. Information literacy includes, but is not limited to, digital, visual, media, textual, and technological literacy. Lessons may include the research process and how information is created and produced; critical thinking and using information resources; research methods, including the difference between primary and secondary sources; the difference between facts, points of view, and opinions, accessing peer-reviewed print and digital library resources; the economic, legal, social, and ethical issues surrounding the use of information.

The identified standards reflect a developmental progression across grades/ levels and make interdisciplinary connections across content areas including social sciences, technology, career readiness, cultural awareness and global citizenship. The standards that follow are relevant to this course in addition to the associated content-based standards listed below.

|--------------------|---|
| ELA.L.SS.11–12.1 | Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking. |
| ELA.L.SS.11–12.1.A | Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and place, and is sometimes contested. |
| ELA.L.SS.11–12.1.B | Observe hyphenation conventions. |
| ELA.L.SS.11–12.1.C | Recognize spelling conventions. |
| ELA.L.KL.11–12.2 | Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening. |
| ELA.L.KL.11–12.2.A | Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level. |
| ELA.L.KL.11–12.2.B | Vary syntax for effect, apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts. |
| ELA.L.KL.11–12.2.C | Demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression. |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3 | Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3.A | Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word’s position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3.B | Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable). |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3.C | Analyze how an author or speaker uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text or discussion. |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3.D | Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage. |
| ELA.L.VL.11–12.3.E | Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary). |
| ELA.L.VI.11–12.4 | Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings. |
| ELA.L.VI.11–12.4.A | Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text. |
| ELA.L.VI.11–12.4.B | Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations. |
| ELA.L.VI.11–12.4.C | Analyze how the meaning of a key term or terms develops or is refined over the course of a text. |
| ELA.L.VI.11–12.4.D | Analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. |

|-------------------|--|
| ELA.R | Reading |
| ELA.RL.CR.11–12.1 | Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text; this may include determining where the text leaves matters uncertain. |
| ELA.RI.CR.11–12.1 | Accurately cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text. |
| ELA.RL.CI.11–12.2 | Determine two or more themes of a literary text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text. |
| ELA.RI.CI.11–12.2 | Determine two or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of a text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text. |
| ELA.RL.IT.11–12.3 | Analyze the impact of the author’s choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed). |
| ELA.RI.IT.11–12.3 | Analyze the impact of an author’s choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding a complex set of ideas or sequence of events, and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop. |
| ELA.RL.TS.11–12.4 | Evaluate the author’s choices concerning the structure and the effectiveness of specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) and how they contribute to its overall structure and meaning, as well as its aesthetic impact. |
| ELA.RI.TS.11–12.4 | Evaluate the author’s choices concerning structure and the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging. |
| ELA.RL.PP.11–12.5 | Evaluate perspectives/lenses from two or more texts on related topics and justify the more cogent viewpoint (e.g., different accounts of the same event or issue, use of different media or formats). |
| ELA.RI.PP.11–12.5 | Analyze an author’s purpose in a text distinguishing what is directly stated in a text or through rhetoric, analyzing how style and content convey information and advance a point of view. |
| ELA.RL.MF.11–12.6 | Synthesize complex information across multiple sources and formats to develop ideas, resolve conflicting information, or develop an interpretation that goes beyond explicit text information (e.g., express a personal point of view, new interpretation of the author’s message). |
| ELA.RI.MF.11–12.6 | Synthesize complex information across multiple sources and formats to develop ideas, resolve conflicting information, or develop an interpretation that goes beyond explicit text information (e.g., express a personal point of view, new interpretation of the concept). |
| ELA.RI.AA.11–12.7 | Describe and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. and global texts, and the premises, purposes, and arguments in these works. |
| ELA.RL.CT.11–12.8 | Demonstrate knowledge of, analyze, and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) documents of historical and literary significance for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics. |
| ELA.RI.CT.11–12.8 | Analyze and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) documents of historical and scientific significance for their purposes, including primary source documents relevant to U.S. and/or global history and texts proposing scientific or technical advancements. |

|--------------------|---|
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1 | Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. |
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1.A | Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence. |
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1.B | Develop claim(s) and counterclaims avoiding common logical fallacies and using sound reasoning and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases. |
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1.C | Use transitions (e.g., words, phrases, clauses) to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims. |
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1.D | Establish and maintain a style and tone appropriate to the audience and purpose (e.g., formal and objective for academic writing) while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. |
| ELA.W.AW.11–12.1.E | Provide a concluding paragraph or section that supports the argument presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic). |
| WRK.9.2.12.CAP.4 | Evaluate different careers and develop various plans (e.g., costs of public, private, training schools) and timetables for achieving them, including educational/training requirements, costs, loans, and debt repayment. |
| WRK.9.2.12.CAP.5 | Assess and modify a personal plan to support current interests and post-secondary plans. |
| WRK.9.2.12.CAP.6 | Identify transferable skills in career choices and design alternative career plans based on those skills. |
| WRK.9.2.12.CAP.8 | Determine job entrance criteria (e.g., education credentials, math/writing/reading comprehension tests, drug tests) used by employers in various industry sectors. |
| WRK.9.2.12.CAP.13 | Analyze how the economic, social, and political conditions of a time period can affect the labor market. |
| TECH.9.4.12.CI.1 | Demonstrate the ability to reflect, analyze, and use creative skills and ideas (e.g., 1.1.12prof.CR3a). |
| TECH.9.4.12.CI.2 | Identify career pathways that highlight personal talents, skills, and abilities (e.g., 1.4.12prof.CR2b, 2.2.12.LF.8). |
| TECH.9.4.12.CI.3 | Investigate new challenges and opportunities for personal growth, advancement, and transition (e.g., 2.1.12.PGD.1). |
| TECH.9.4.12.CT.1 | Identify problem-solving strategies used in the development of an innovative product or practice (e.g., 1.1.12acc.C1b, 2.2.12.PF.3). |
| TECH.9.4.12.CT.2 | Explain the potential benefits of collaborating to enhance critical thinking and problem solving (e.g., 1.3E.12profCR3.a). |
| TECH.9.4.12.CT.4 | Participate in online strategy and planning sessions for course-based, school-based, or other project and determine the strategies that contribute to effective outcomes. |

Essential Questions/Enduring Understandings

- How do we analyze representative literary and film texts?
- How do we best utilize film making equipment to elevate narrative and information creations?
- How is characterization depicted through the use of color and shots in a film?
- How is color used in a film?

- How is linear and nonlinear sound used in a film?
- How is sound used to create mood and atmosphere?
- What differentiates a good script from a great script?
- What film techniques are used to represent the theme, stated and implied, in a film?
- What is editing and why is it essential in a film?
- What is Mise-en-scene? How does it include the lighting, sets and props?
- Why are different shots used in a film?

Students Will Know/Students Will Be Skilled At

- Characterization, plot and theme are all represented in the mise-en-scene, visual composition, and color used within a film.
- Demonstrate how the textual aspects of film further its theme.
- How color and cinematography influence an audience on a conscious and unconscious level.
- How editing and sound contribute to the overall mood and tone of a film.
- How the formal aspects of film relate to a film's structure and expression.
- How to analyze exemplar filmmaking.
- How to differentiate between cuts and transitions within a film.
- How to engage in more intellectual discussions using the visual literacy skills gleaned through film analysis.
- How to use the techniques of visually analyzing a film to view art, history and life.
- How to utilize video and audio editing software to assemble and organize original narratives and informational pieces.
- The fundamental uses and application of Adobe Premier, Audition, and After Effects.
- The fundamental uses and application of film equipment such as cameras, lighting, etc.
- The principles of visual composition as it applies to film making.
- Using the terminology gleaned through the study of editing and sound to enrich their analytical skills.
- Utilizing film cutting, transitioning and sound.

Evidence/Performance Tasks

Developmental progression throughout the semester will be evaluated via a student portfolio updated each marking period. Follow up diagnostic assessments are used to target skill remediation. Student proficiency allows for additional or alternative assessment based on demonstration or absence of skill.

Students demonstrate differentiated proficiency through both formative and summative assessments in the classroom. Based on individual student readiness and performance, assessments can be implemented as formative and/or summative.

The performance tasks listed below are examples of the types of assessments teachers may use in the classroom and the data collected by the district to track student progress.

Formative:

- Teacher Observations
- Accountable Talk, Socratic Seminars/Fish Bowls
- Analysis of multimodal text sets
- Analysis of critical commentary, literary criticism
- Writers Notebook (quick writes/drafts/prewrites), emphasizing author's craft
- Close reading analysis of text using evidence as substantiation
- Conferences: Individual and small group, accompanying conference notes
- Reflective exercises and assessments
- Oral Reading and Interpretation
- Peer and self-evaluations of learning
- Entrance and Exit Tickets
- Open-Ended Responses in Journal

Summative, including Alternative Assessments:

- On-demand Writing Assessments, timed and untimed
- Researched Presentations
- Performance Assessments
- Project-based Learning
- Problem-based Learning
- Personalized Learning
- Visual Literacy Prompts
- Digital Portfolios
- Online Discussion Forum

Benchmark:

- Benchmark reading and writing assessments, scored using rubrics, district-created and standards-aligned; based on NJSLA, reported twice per year
- Engage in text set analysis using visual literacy and close reading analysis strategies to compose a claim and use evidence as support
- Grade-level Standards-based Rubrics

Other Assessment Ideas:

- Analysis of critical commentary, literary criticism using various databases, CLCs, and Bloom's Literary Database
- Close reading analysis of text using evidence as substantiation, develop notetaking skills and annotations
- Conferences: Individual and small group, accompanying conference notes
- Reflective exercises and assessments
- Oral Reading and Interpretation, rehearsal and modeling effective listening and speaking techniques
- Open-Ended Responses in Journal regarding Reflections, Character Development, and/or Life Choices
- Researched Presentations, Biographical, Historical, Psychological and/or Philosophical analysis of a Memoir

- Performance Assessments, including a dramatic reading of a scene, excerpt, or poem that relates to one of the subthemes
- Participate in organized literature circles where students lead discussions about character, conflict and theme and work collaboratively to determine answers to questions posed by teacher and other students
- Evaluate societal concerns reflected through plot and theme
- Cite and interpret quoted material from the text and from literary criticism
- Create a narrative memoir using narrative techniques and factual information in proper MLA format
- Participate in peer and teacher/student critiques to revise and edit their essays
- Create artistic, interactive and/or multimedia projects that suggest an understanding of the text beyond its literal meaning

Learning Plan

Instructional time for the reading of film will be student-driven with teacher oversight and guidance through conferencing and feedback. Independent screenings will be conducted throughout the semester and must include a minimum of 2 long-form and 3 short-film works in addition to 1 script reading per marking period. The intent is for student-readers to develop their reading goals to best support their production goals for the course. These strategies have been practiced in prerequisite courses and will be monitored through teacher conferencing with students. An emphasis will be based on the transfer of skills instruction, teaching the reader, not merely the content of the text. The text complexity and rigor of reading will be appropriate for grade 11; materials selection for whole-class and literature circles will be from the book list approved by the Board of Education. Classrooms will house rich and diverse independent reading libraries of contemporary and canonical works.

The reading of text targets not only comprehension but also analysis. Students will read both long-and short-form, excerpted, and feature-length, fiction, and nonfiction texts. Techniques and terminology specific to a genre of reading are examined. Research tasks are embedded throughout the year. Vocabulary instruction will be chosen from the reading material.

Students write argument/persuasion, and exposition based on their reading of film. Various forms of writing including digital writing are emphasized as well. Grammar instruction is embedded in writing instruction through mini-lessons, holding students accountable for skills taught and practiced; modeling is done through mentor texts, both published and student-crafted. Teachers focus on the process in addition to the product with an emphasis on synthesizing texts with nuanced understanding; teacher-created multi-modal text sets will be used as materials. High and low-stakes, timed and untimed pieces are all important.

Teachers may personalize instruction during this unit and address individual student's distinct learning needs, interests, aspirations, or cultural backgrounds.

Students may complete analytical analysis, persuasive writing, synthesis essays, database research, and journal writing. Students will participate in individual, partner, and group activities including Literature Circles, Socratic Discussions, Jigsaw Methods, and other Cooperative Learning activities.

Students will be taught how to speak and listen in addition to being assessed on these skills. Lessons will include identifying effective speaking and listening strategies, analyzing various techniques for enhancing voice and movement, modeling various effective speakers and listeners strategies, and creating opportunities to develop vocal effectiveness and presentation skills.

Students will compare directorial liberties in movies and plays.

This unit of study will focus on the study of film masters and exemplary film works. The central quotation from Jean-Luc Godard is "A story should have a beginning, a middle, and an end . . . but not necessarily in that order."

Sample Unit Plan:

- Conference: Review portfolio requirements and student goals for the course.
- Guided First Screening: Review student goals and guide student's first screening selection
- First Analysis: Review film criticism and model. Students produce their first film criticism.
- Student Guided Screenings: Through conferencing and feedback, students continue to complete screenings and criticism throughout the semester.

Materials

The materials used in this course integrate a variety of leveled instructional, enrichment, and intervention materials that support student learners at all levels in the school and home environments. Associated web content and media sources are infused into the unit as applicable and available.

Teachers must refer to the district-approved Core Book List and the Core Film List while selecting whole-class or small-group leveled resources.

Suggested Strategies for Accommodation and Modification

Content specific accommodations and modifications as well as Career Ready Practices are listed here for all students, including: Special Education, English Language Learners, At Risk of School Failure, Gifted and Talented, Students with 504.

Possible accommodations include:

- Access speech-to-text function on computer
- Use visual presentations of all materials to include organizers, charts
- Allow students to set individual goals for writing/reading
- Offer graphic organizers, note-taking models, strategies for summarizing, and questioning techniques
- Offer oral assessments
- Supply study guide questions and access to class notes
- Work in partnerships
- Give responses in a form (verbal or written) that is easier for the student
- Take additional time to complete a task or project
- Scaffold by chunking material and texts
- Individualize reading choices based on ability and level
- Take frequent breaks
- Use an alarm to help with time management
- Small group and one on one assessment
- Mark text with a highlighter or other manipulative such as a post-it
- Receive help coordinating assignments
- Answering fewer questions or completing shorter tasks
- Modify the length and quantity of assignments to fit individual
- Differentiate roles in discussion groups
- Use digital technology, eBooks,, audio version of printed text
- Create alternate assignments or homework
- Provide distinct steps in a process; eliminate unnecessary steps, as needed
- Use art, music, and film to convey alternate interpretation of literature and assessment
- Manage executive function by scaffolding process and amending deadlines

Possible modifications to content during writing workshop include, but are not limited to:

- Adhere to all modifications and accommodations as prescribed in IEP and 504 plan
