

Part 1: Small-group brainstorming, 30 minutes *If your class is creating their podcasts in small groups, have them split into those small groups now and spend the entire class period completing this activity.

Pick three of these prompts that you think would be fun to make a podcast about.

Come up with an idea for each of these three prompts.

How would you structure it?

- (A conversation as a group?)
- An interview with one person?
- A story with clips of interviews and sounds, narrated by a host?)

1. Tell us a story about your school or community: about something that happened there -- recently or in the past -- that you want your audience to know about.

2. What is a moment in history that all students should learn about?

3. Show us both sides of a debate about an issue that's important to you.

4. What do you want to change about the world? What's a big change that you want to make in the future?

5. Explain something to us that kids understand and grownups don't
