

3: Subject Matter Unit

Content Area: Art
Course(s): Studio Art I
Time Period: 3rd Marking Period
Length: 12 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In this unit, the students will learn about how the usage of and selection of subject matter can affect their work. The students will learn about subject matter through vetting subjects that have aesthetic value, social and cultural implications, and personal relevance.

Transfer

Students will be able to independently use their learning to:

- choose subject matter for their art that reflects social or cultural implications, personal relevance, or aesthetic value based on the Elements of Art and Principles of Design
- study a work of art in order to understand the story behind the composition, and relate the strategies used in their own works
- find aesthetic value in everyday items to find points of interest in composition

Meaning

Understandings

Students will understand that...

- art is a visual literacy that can be read in images, without words
- viewers can draw conclusions on a work of art through technical proficiency and subject matter
- aesthetic value can be found in seemingly ordinary objects, which in conjunction with the Elements of Art and Principles of Design, can lead to a successful work of art

Essential Questions

Students will keep considering...

- What audience will be attracted to the subject I have chosen?
- Is the subject matter relevant to my culture or the people of another culture?
- Is there anything visually interesting about the subject, or the presentation of the subject in my composition?

Application of Knowledge and Skill

Students will know...

Students will know...

- that subject matter can affect the message of the work produced
- that subject matter can represent an observation, opinion, or story on a visual level

Students will be skilled at...

Students will be skilled at...

- researching subject matter based on personal relevance, aesthetic value, and social/cultural implications
- using the subject matter of their composition to tell a story to the viewer

Academic Vocabulary

Aesthetic value

Visual literacy

Learning Goal

The students will be able to synthesize an event or series of events into a composition in order to tell a story.

The students will be able to rationalize the importance of a subject based on cultural implication, personal relevance, and aesthetic value based on the Elements of Art and Principles of Design.

CRP.K-12.CRP4	Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.
CRP.K-12.CRP5	Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
CRP.K-12.CRP6	Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
CRP.K-12.CRP7	Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
CRP.K-12.CRP8	Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
VPA.1.1.12.D.2	Translate literary, musical, theatrical, and dance compositions by using them as stimulus/inspiration for corresponding visual artworks.
VPA.1.1.12.D.CS1	Common themes exist in artwork from a variety of cultures across time and are communicated through metaphor, symbolism, and allegory.
VPA.1.1.12.D.CS2	Stimuli for the creation of artworks can come from many places, including other arts disciplines.
VPA.1.2.12.A.1	Determine how dance, music, theatre, and visual art have influenced world cultures throughout history.
VPA.1.2.12.A.2	Justify the impact of innovations in the arts (e.g., the availability of music online) on societal norms and habits of mind in various historical eras.
VPA.1.2.12.A.CS1	Cultural and historical events impact art-making as well as how audiences respond to works of art.
VPA.1.2.12.A.CS2	Access to the arts has a positive influence on the quality of an individual's lifelong learning, personal expression, and contributions to community and global citizenship.
VPA.1.3.12.D.1	Synthesize the elements of art and principles of design in an original portfolio of two- and three-dimensional artworks that reflects personal style and a high degree of technical proficiency and expressivity.
VPA.1.3.12.D.2	Produce an original body of artwork in one or more art mediums that demonstrates mastery of visual literacy, methods, techniques, and cultural understanding.
VPA.1.3.12.D.3	Organize an exhibit of personal works of visual art that convey a high level of understanding of how the expression of ideas relates to the art media, art mediums, and techniques used.
VPA.1.3.12.D.4	Analyze the syntax and compositional and stylistic principles of two- and three-dimensional artworks in multiple art media (including computer-assisted artwork), and interpret themes and symbols suggested by the artworks.

VPA.1.3.12.D.5	Identify the styles and artistic processes used in the creation of culturally and historically diverse two- and three-dimensional artworks, and emulate those styles by creating an original body of work.
VPA.1.3.12.D.CS2	Culturally and historically diverse art media, art mediums, techniques, and styles impact originality and interpretation of the artistic statement.
VPA.1.3.12.D.CS3	The artist's understanding of the relationships among art media, methodology, and visual statement allows the artist to use expressionism, abstractionism (nonobjective art), realism/naturalism, impressionism, and other genre styles to convey ideas to an audience.
VPA.1.3.12.D.CS4	Artists interpret/render themes using traditional art media and methodologies as well as new art media and methodologies.
VPA.1.3.12.D.CS5	Two- and three-dimensional artworks can be rendered culturally specific by using the tools, techniques, styles, materials, and methodologies that are germane to a particular cultural style.
VPA.1.4.12.A.1	Use contextual clues to differentiate between unique and common properties and to discern the cultural implications of works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art.
VPA.1.4.12.A.2	Speculate on the artist's intent, using discipline-specific arts terminology and citing embedded clues to substantiate the hypothesis.
VPA.1.4.12.A.3	Develop informed personal responses to an assortment of artworks across the four arts disciplines (dance, music, theatre, and visual art), using historical significance, craftsmanship, cultural context, and originality as criteria for assigning value to the works.
VPA.1.4.12.A.4	Evaluate how exposure to various cultures influences individual, emotional, intellectual, and kinesthetic responses to artwork.
VPA.1.4.12.A.CS1	Recognition of fundamental elements within various arts disciplines (dance, music, theatre, and visual art) is dependent on the ability to decipher cultural implications embedded in artworks.
VPA.1.4.12.A.CS2	Contextual clues within artworks often reveal artistic intent, enabling the viewer to hypothesize the artist's concept.
VPA.1.4.12.A.CS3	Artistic styles, trends, movements, and historical responses to various genres of art evolve over time.
VPA.1.4.12.A.CS4	Criteria for assessing the historical significance, craftsmanship, cultural context, and originality of art are often expressed in qualitative, discipline-specific arts terminology.
VPA.1.4.12.B.1	Formulate criteria for arts evaluation using the principles of positive critique and observation of the elements of art and principles of design, and use the criteria to evaluate works of dance, music, theatre, visual, and multimedia artwork from diverse cultural contexts and historical eras.
VPA.1.4.12.B.2	Evaluate how an artist's technical proficiency may affect the creation or presentation of a work of art, as well as how the context in which a work is performed or shown may impact perceptions of its significance/meaning.
VPA.1.4.12.B.3	Determine the role of art and art-making in a global society by analyzing the influence of technology on the visual, performing, and multimedia arts for consumers, creators, and performers around the world.
VPA.1.4.12.B.CS1	Archetypal subject matter exists in all cultures and is embodied in the formal and informal aspects of art.
VPA.1.4.12.B.CS2	The cohesiveness of a work of art and its ability to communicate a theme or narrative can be directly affected by the artist's technical proficiency as well as by the manner and physical context in which it is performed or shown.
VPA.1.4.12.B.CS3	Art and art-making reflect and affect the role of technology in a global society.

Summative Assessment

- Art Projects
- Critique
- Written, Visual, and Oral Assessments

Formative Assessment and Performance Opportunities

- Practice worksheets/ Activites
- Presentation of material with discussion points
- Sketches

Differentiation / Enrichment

Students are provided opportunities to be successful through the use of written/verbal critique, teacher monitoring/assessing, and peer critique. Students are also provided opportunities to be successful through the use of practice, projects, and activites such as worksheets

Unit Resources

- Critique
- Internet Resources
- Physical and Projected Visual Examples
