

Level 1: Unit 1: Stories of Change

Content Area: English Language Arts
Course(s): Generic Course, Language Arts 6
Time Period: Generic Time Period
Length: 39 days (class periods)
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Unit Overview: Unit 1 introduces the idea of “change” as the conceptual focus for the year. By reading, analyzing, and creating texts, you will examine changes that happen in your life as well as in the world around you. Through your responses to texts, you will better understand that change is threaded through all of our lives and is something we can tell stories about.

Transfer

- Analyzing literary works through close reading to understand multiple meanings (Activities 1.13, 1.14, 1.16)
- Making careful observations of textual details (Activities 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, 1.12, 1.14, 1.15, 1.16)
- Reading to become aware of how stylistic effects are achieved by a writer (Activities 1.4, 1.6, 1.13)
- Connecting writing skills to interpretive skills in reading (Activities 1.2, 1.10, 1.12)
- Focusing deliberate attention on the craft of sentence-level writing (Activities 1.5, 1.14, 1.15, 1.16)
- Writing and rewriting in ongoing efforts to achieve stylistic maturity. (Activities 1.6, 1.7, 1.8, 1.15)
- Using a wide-ranging vocabulary with attention to accurate denotation and purposeful connotation (Activities 1.6, 1.8, 1.13)
- Recognize and correct grammatically incomplete sentences (e.g., rhetorically inappropriate fragments and run-ons). (LC 1.5)

Meaning

Understandings

- To understand how change can be significant
- To evaluate details to determine the key idea of texts
- To use narrative techniques such as sequencing, dialogue, and descriptive language
- To write meaningful narratives using genre characteristics
- To understand pronouns and the conventions of punctuation dialogue

Essential Questions

- How can change be significant?
- What makes a good story?

Learning Goal

Unit 1: Embedded Assessment 1(Level Two):

Students will apply their understanding of narrative by writing a personal narrative that includes a well-told incident, a response to the incident, and a reflection about the significance of the incident.

Unit 1: Embedded Assessment 2 (Level Three):

Students will closely read several short stories to be able to analyze plot development and figurative language to write a story using dialogue, vivid verbs, and figurative language that captures a real or imagined experience and includes characters, conflict, and a plot with exposition, climax, and resolution.

1.1 Previewing the Unit

Learning Focus:

1 50 minute period

SWBAT:

- Preview the big ideas, academic vocabulary and literacy terms for the unit.
- Unpack the skills and knowledge needed to complete Embedded Assessment 1.

LA.SL.6.1.C

Pose and respond to specific questions with elaboration and detail by making comments that contribute to the topic, text, or issue under discussion.

LA.L.6.6

Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

1.2 What Makes a Narrative?

2-50 minute period

Short Story: "The Circuit" by Francisco Jimenez

Article: "Schools Hustle to Reach Kids Who Move with the Harvest, Not the School Year" by Peter Balonon-Rosen

SWBAT:

- Define the concept of change through the reading of a narrative and an article.
- Apply understanding of narrative elements to reading.
- Integrate ideas from multiple text to build knowledge and vocabulary about migrant workers.

LA.RL.6.1	Cite textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
LA.RL.6.2	Determine a theme or central idea of a text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
LA.RL.6.3	Describe how a particular story's or drama's plot unfolds in a series of episodes as well as how the characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution.
LA.RL.6.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.
LA.RL.6.5	Analyze how a particular sentence, chapter, scene, or stanza fits into the overall structure of a text and contributes to the development of the theme, setting, or plot.
LA.RL.6.6	Explain how an author develops the point of view of the narrator or speaker in a text.
LA.RL.6.9	Compare, contrast and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) texts in different forms or genres (e.g., stories and poems; historical novels and fantasy stories) in terms of their approaches to similar themes and topics.
LA.RI.6.1	Cite textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
LA.RI.6.2	Determine a central idea of a text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
LA.RI.6.3	Analyze in detail how a key individual, event, or idea is introduced, illustrated, and elaborated in a text (e.g., through examples or anecdotes).
LA.RI.6.6	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and explain how it is conveyed in the text.
LA.RI.6.9	Compare, contrast and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) one author's presentation of events with that of another (e.g., a memoir written by and a biography on the same person).
LA.W.6.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, voice and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LA.W.6.9.A	Apply grade 6 Reading standards to literature (e.g., "Compare and contrast texts in different forms or genres [e.g., stories and poems; historical novels and fantasy stories] in terms of their approaches to similar themes and topics").
LA.L.6.4.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
LA.L.6.4.B	Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., audience, auditory, audible).
LA.L.6.4.C	Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
LA.L.6.6	Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

21st Century Life and Careers

CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
CRP.K-12.CRP6.1	Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.
CRP.K-12.CRP11.1	Career-ready individuals take personal ownership of their own education and career goals, and they regularly act on a plan to attain these goals. They understand their own career interests, preferences, goals, and requirements. They have perspective regarding the pathways available to them and the time, effort, experience and other requirements to pursue each, including a path of entrepreneurship. They recognize the value of each step in the education and experiential process, and they recognize that nearly all career paths require ongoing education and experience. They seek counselors, mentors, and other experts to assist in the planning and execution of career and personal goals.
CRP.K-12.CRP12.1	Career-ready individuals positively contribute to every team, whether formal or informal. They apply an awareness of cultural difference to avoid barriers to productive and positive interaction. They find ways to increase the engagement and contribution of all team members. They plan and facilitate effective team meetings.
