

Unit 5: Creating a Republic (Grade 7)

Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s): Generic Course
Time Period: 6 weeks
Length: April
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Students will be able to learn about the how the Thirteen original states were, at first, a loose confederation, the Constitutional Convention, the ideas behind the Constitution, and ratification and the Bill of Rights.

Transfer

Students will be able to independently use their learning of the creation of the American republic to better understand how the rules and laws of the United States we live in now came into existence and the reasons behind the Constitution. This will enable them to have a better understanding about the history and development of the country.

Meaning

Understandings

Students will understand that...

-after the Revolutionary War, the original states were a loosely organized confederation with economic problems that needed to be solved

-The Constitutional Convention was held in order to come up with a system to unite the United States into a more proficient nation

- the ideas behind the Constitution were arrived at through various episodes of negotiation among states with wide-ranging interests

- ratification and the Bill of Rights were not easily established but ultimately were added to protect our rights as United States' citizens

Essential Questions

Students will keep considering...

- 1.) (Solving Problems): Choose one of the problems the nation faced in 1787. Then, write a letter to a delegate to the upcoming Philadelphia Convention. Suggest one idea to solve that problem.
- 2.) (Drawing Inferences): Some historians call slavery the "unfinished business" of the 1787 Convention. Write a paragraph explaining why.
- 3.) (Applying Information): The Magna Carta states, "Neither we nor our [representatives] shall take... wood which is not ours, against the will of the owner of the wood." Write a paragraph explaining how this principle applies to the United States.
- 4.) (Drawing Conclusions): Analyze the views of George Mason and Alexander Hamilton about the Bill of Rights. Explain how the influence of both shaped the Bill of Rights as it now exists.

Application of Knowledge and Skill

Students will know...

Students will know...

- 1.) Explain why state governments wrote constitutions
- 2.) list the weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation
- 3.) describe the process the articles created for admitting new states

- 4.) explain why many Americans called for changes in the Articles
- 5.) identify the leaders of the Convention
- 6.) Explain the main differences between the two rival plans for the new Constitution
- 7.) describe the compromises the delegates had to reach before the Constitution could be signed
- 8.) Explain what American leaders learned from studying Ancient Rome
- 9.) Identify the traditions of freedom that Americans inherited from Great Britain and from their own colonial past
- 10.) Explain how Enlightenment ideas shaped the development of the Constitution
- 11.) List the key issues in the constitutional debate
- 12.) Explain how the Constitution was finally ratified
- 13.) Describe how the Bill of Rights was added to the Constitution

Students will be skilled at...

Students will be skilled at...

recalling simple names, dates, and facts

sequencing events and creating time lines

recognizing main ideas

using symbols and symbolizing in maps and documents

integrating math and language arts into Social Studies lessons

specifying and predicting the reasoning and outcomes of decisions investigating primary sources

experimenting with hypothetical situations and what-ifs

Problem solving using contextual experiences related to the unit decision-making and choosing the best course of action for contemporaries of the time period and relating such to the present

Academic Vocabulary

Section 1: constitution, bill of rights, Articles of Confederation, cede, currency, Land Ordinance of 1785, Northwest Ordinance, depression, Shay's Rebellion

Interdisciplinary Connections

LA.W.7.1	Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence.
LA.RI.7.1	Cite several pieces of textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
LA.RI.7.2	Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.
LA.RI.7.3	Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).
LA.RI.7.5	Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.
LA.RI.7.8	Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims.
LA.RL.7.1	Cite several pieces of textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
LA.RL.7.2	Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.
TECH.8.1.8.A.1	Demonstrate knowledge of a real world problem using digital tools.
TECH.8.1.8.A.2	Create a document (e.g., newsletter, reports, personalized learning plan, business letters or flyers) using one or more digital applications to be critiqued by professionals for usability.
TECH.8.1.8.A.CS1	Understand and use technology systems.
TECH.8.1.8.D.CS1	Advocate and practice safe, legal, and responsible use of information and technology.
TECH.8.1.8.D.CS2	Demonstrate personal responsibility for lifelong learning.
TECH.8.1.8.D.CS3	Exhibit leadership for digital citizenship.
