Fitness I Overview

Fitness is a great activity to build a student's cardiovascular endurance, muscular strength and flexibility, as well as their ability to cooperate with classmates to achieve a common goal. In this unit, students will work to improve their own personal fitness in cooperative and individual activities.

Transfer

Students will be able to independently use their learning to...

- Participate successfully in individual and cooperative track and field activities to enjoy the physical, social and mental benefits of exercise. These track and field activities are meant to improve their overall health and wellness.
