Fitness III

Fitness is a great activity to build a student's cardiovascular endurance, muscular strength and flexibility, as well as their ability to cooperate with classmates to achieve a common goal. In this unit, students will work to improve their own personal fitness in cooperative and individual activities.

Transfer

Students will be able to independently use their learning to...

- Participate successfully in individual and cooperative fitness activities to enjoy the physical, social and mental benefits of exercise. These fitness activities are meant to improve their overall health and wellness.
