Music Appreciation/Individual Vocal Instruction

Main Topic – Reinforcement of Music Appreciation/Individual Vocal Instruction

Estimated Time: Approximately 35 weeks (ongoing throughout the year)

Learning Objectives

- Artists will work on their personal improvement and development as well-rounded Vocal Artists.
- Audition preparation for regional ensembles, competitions, and college auditions.
- Critique/Feedback offered respectfully to other Artists in the class based on the concept of constructive feedback whereby both the listener and the performer will be uplifted as Artists help each other to improve.
- Regular sight singing of short simple musical examples using diatonic skips and scale-wise motion with solfege syllables for use of improving pitch recognition and intonation of the Artist's voice and instrument's pitch.
- Regular Vocal practice using various method and technique books appropriate to each Artist's voice and ability.
- Regularly taking melodic dictation on staff paper of short musical phrases in easy keys to develop aural acuity in identifying what pitches and rhythms they hear.
- The creation of vocal music spontaneously with and without other Artists input. This music could exist solely as an impromptu experience in improvisation or as the basis for a more formalized composition (written or not).
- The regular listening experience where Artists will listen to a large number of different music examples of varying styles, moods, historical musical periods, instrumentation. The Artist will then make a journal entry of each experience first describing it objectively in as much detail as possible and then making critical commentary on items such as its performance level, recording, quality, compositional techniques, and personal taste statements.
- Weekly in-class performance to demonstrate proper performance etiquette and technique.
- Work on cooperative musical ventures with other Artists to include duets, chamber choir music, and larger choral ensembles with and without a conductor.

- Work on individual solos meant to appropriately challenge the Artist.
