Perspective Summary

Unit 4, Perspective, challenges artists to create work using technical drawing skills. Artists will learn one and two-point perspective and their practical/real-world applications. Artists will learn the historical legacy of linear perspective and hone their fine detail and drawing skills, challenging their skillset to create works of art that appear or have the illusion of being three-dimensional but are in fact still on a flat two-dimensional plane.

Learning Objectives

- Compare and contrast worm's eye view and bird's eye view
- Consider optical illusions and math in art via tessellations and anamorphic work
- Consider space in terms of negative and positive
- Consider the Renaissance's global influence on the progression of art and techniques such as perspective
- Create the illusion of space on a two-dimensional surface using linear perspective
- Define and identify horizon line and vanishing point
- Define perspective as it pertains to spatial planes and depth
- Define space using foreground, middle ground, and background
- Employ the use of drawing aids and techniques
- Use measuring tools and skills to successfully create technical drawings
- Use vocabulary related to space, depth, and perspective

Essential Skills

- Artists will be able to analyze and interpret artwork.

- Artists will be able to analyze the role and responsibility of an artist.
- Artists will be able to appropriately depict scale and proportion in the human figure and portrait.
- Artists will be able to compare and contrast periods of art movements.
- Artists will be able to critique and give constructive feedback on own artwork and artwork of others.
- Artists will be able to define, recognize, and apply the Elements of Art.
- Artists will be able to demonstrate strong skills in technical drawing.
- Artists will be able to develop a rich fine arts vocabulary.
- Artists will be able to discuss the roles of artists in local communities.
- Artists will be able to discuss the use of art as a form of visual communication.
- Artists will be able to display knowledge of various media and their properties.
- Artists will be able to examine art's place in the world.
- Artists will be able to examine self as an artist.
- Artists will be able to identify and apply color relationships using color theory.
- Artists will be able to properly and appropriately care for, store, and present artwork.
- Artists will be able to render 3-dimensionally on 2-dimensional planes.
- Artists will be able to safely use and store art materials.

Standards

VPA.1.1.12.D.1	Distinguish innovative applications of the elements of art and principles of design in visual artworks from diverse cultural perspectives and identify specific cross-cultural themes.
VPA.1.2.8.A.2	Differentiate past and contemporary works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art that represent important ideas, issues, and events that are chronicled in the histories of diverse cultures.
VPA.1.3.12.D.1	Synthesize the elements of art and principles of design in an original portfolio of two- and three-dimensional artworks that reflects personal style and a high degree of technical proficiency and expressivity.
VPA.1.3.12.D.3	Organize an exhibit of personal works of visual art that convey a high level of understanding of how the expression of ideas relates to the art media, art mediums, and techniques used.
VPA.1.3.12.D.5	Identify the styles and artistic processes used in the creation of culturally and historically diverse two- and three-dimensional artworks, and emulate those styles by creating an original body of work.
VPA.1.4.8.A.2	Identify works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art that are used for utilitarian and non-utilitarian purposes.
VPA.1.4.8.A.4	Compare and contrast changes in the accepted meanings of known artworks over time, given shifts in societal norms, beliefs, or values.
VPA.1.4.8.A.6	Differentiate between "traditional" works of art and those that do not use conventional elements of style to express new ideas.
VPA.1.4.12.A.2	Speculate on the artist's intent, using discipline-specific arts terminology and citing embedded clues to substantiate the hypothesis.
